Dear Pa New:

We hope that when the woods do have their blooms of wild flowers that Trilliums, Jack-in-the-Pulpit, Hepatica, this later flower should never be picked for when the bloom is gone this prevents reseeding for which in time will cause this beautiful flower to disappear. Party Registration Can't Be Changed For Coming Primary

There has been some question in the minds of voters concerning the right to change their registration from one party to the other before the primary, on May 15. It has been argued by some, that by going to the county commissioners or presenting themselves at the registry booths on April 25, any voter could change his party affiliation.

This is in error. No voter can change his registration unless he can show error upon the part of the registrar on the registration day he was listed in 1933.

In other words, voters who are registered Republicans are going to vote in the Republican primary and voters registered Democrats are going to vote in the Democratic primary.

County Solicitor William McElwee, Jr., was asked Monday what his opinion would be in the matter if it were formally presented to him. His reply was "If the matter were presented to me in regular channels I would be forced to render the opinion that no voter could change his registration between now and May 15, unless he can show error on the part of the registrar last year."

First Day Trout Fishermen Report Many Good Catches

Trout season opened yesterday and for breakfast this morning many families had a nice mess of "speckled trout" and if there is anything more palatable than trout, it is more trout.

Scores of fishermen journeyed to the various streams throughout the district. The water was above normal height in some creeks but generally speaking, conditions were perfect.

Brings In Big One
As a result here is one of the first fish stories of the 1934 trout season, and perhaps the best one. At least it is the best thus far. The size of the fish will stand for a few days as the best catch, with a good chance that it will be the record for Lawrence county this year.

Parson Furst, well known young business man, is the hero of the act. Having no time to get out into the mountain counties for his trout fishing, he took an hour or two off and went out around Rose Point. The fish seemed to know he was in a hurry to get back for in a short time he landed an 18-inch trout, between 2 1/2 and 3

HARRISBURG, April 17.—Under a heavy rainfall, a number of anglers made heavy catches of trout in the Yellow Breeches Creek on the opening day of the season, according to reports today to the fish commission.

Fishing conditions were anything but ideal the commission said since the downpour washed an abundance of food into the streams.

Trout fishing is expected to improve as soon as stream levels recede as all suitable waters have been heavily stocked in preparation for the season.

Despondency Over Crippled Condition Believed Re-

Joseph Melnyk, aged 47 years, of 245 Smithfield street, who has been a helpless invalid since he was shot down on South Jefferson street, August 25, 1932, by Harry Kozameczak of Bessemer, ended the suffering which Kozameczak's act brought about this morning, when he strangled himself to death with an electric light cord.

Melnyk, formerly a teller in the People's Savings and Trust company, was shot through the spine by Kozameczak over an imagined grievance, it will be remembered.

Since that time he has been paralyzed from his waist down, and recently has been suffering considerably, members of the family stated.

For some time after he was wounded, Melnyk's life was despaired of, but he eventually recovered enough to be taken to his home from the hospital, doomed to be a helpless cripple the remainder of his days.

Body Discovered.
His lifeless body was discovered by his wife about 11 o'clock this morning. He had fastened the cord from an electric light about his neck.

French Policy To Be Changed

Would Abandon Demands For Guarantees Of Security In Disarmament

By WILLIAM PARKER
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

PARIS, April 17.—Marking a departure from a policy stubbornly adhered to since the close of the World War, France will send a note to Great Britain tonight, International News Service learned today, abandoning her demands for guarantees of French security as a prerequisite to disarmament.

Decision to send the note, it was learned, was reached at a meeting of the ministerial council today.

France, will not, however, unequivocally abandon her historic position regarding guarantees of security.

She will insist, it was learned, that Great Britain covenant to insure the carrying out by Germany of the terms of any new arms agreement that may be reached.

With this reservation the note will inform Great Britain that France is now prepared to discuss disarmament on the basis of the present status of world armaments, indicating continued opposition to any increase in arms for Germany.

Congress Considers President's Request On Air Mail Program

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, April 17.—President Roosevelt's recommendation that legislation be permanently returned to the air service to private companies deferred until next fall pending a thorough study and formulation of "a broad policy relating to aviation as a whole" was before Congress today.

He suggested that Congress authorize the post office department to receive competitive bids from private contractors to carry the air mail for one year, and to empower him to name a special commission of aeronautical experts to study the whole problem of aviation, commercial, military, air mail and private flying.

Open Bids Friday
Friday the post office department is due to open bids on temporary contracts to carry the air mail for three months. The service is now being operated by the army air corps since the contracts of the commercial companies were canceled Feb. 19 by postmaster General Farley. He charged these old contracts were obtained through "fraud and collusion."

Miss Barrows, a mild-mannered, middle-aged woman, appeared nervous as she took the witness chair. She was attired in a blue sweater.

E. & A. Sends About 50 Signal-

Increased activity in the Pennsylvania railroad's extensive electrification program on its eastern trunk lines has furnished employment within the past two weeks to probably 40 or 50 furloughed E. & A. division signalmen and trackmen, the division offices reported today.

It is anticipated that more local men, unemployed at the present, will be summoned to jobs.

The Pennsylvania, boosting the electrification project as one of its main system improvements at present, will hire, insofar as it can be done, only furloughed men of the different divisions until the unemployed slack has been taken up.

Most of the local railroaders have gone to Marysville, near Philadelphia, for their jobs, it is said.

CAMDEN, N. J., April 17.—State troopers of New Jersey and Pennsylvania today joined the search for four daring gunmen who terrorized a bank messenger with a burst of fire from a spigot gun and then looted his armored truck of $5,000 in cash and checks.

The victim of the robbery, executed with speed and precision on a crowded street here last night, was Harry K. Chew, an employee of the West Jersey Trust Company. He was delivering the money, the funds of a dairy company, to a branch of the bank when the gangsters car forced his truck to the curb.

Robbed Once Before.

Without warning, the gunmen fired a blast through the windshield. Chew dropped to the floor uninjured and the bandits grabbed the money bags and fled.

The holdup duplicated one in which Chew was robbed of $2180 a year ago. Chew told police he believed the gunmen were the same gang who robbed him on the first occasion.

Brings In Big One

As a result here is one of the first fish stories of the 1934 trout season, and perhaps the best one. At least it is the best thus far. The size of the fish will stand for a few days as the best catch, with a good chance that it will be the record for Lawrence county this year.

Pearson Furst, well known young business man, is the hero of the act. Having no time to get out into the mountain counties for his trout fishing, he took an hour or two off and went out around Rose Point. The fish seemed to know he was in a hurry to get back for in a short time he landed an 18-inch trout, between 2 1/2 and 3 (Continued On Page Two)

SOUTH NORWALK, Conn., April 17.—Completely baffled, the police today were unable to penetrate the mystery surrounding the death of Arthur Todd, 73 year old recluse of Bell Island, who was found Saturday drowned in the waters on Long Island sound a few feet from the sea wall near East Beach.

Veering first to a murder theory and then to that of suicide, the officers were unable to make up their minds regarding the fate of the old man whose death was as recent as his activities are said to have been.

Footprints Probed.

These officers, led by County Detective William Kearns and Lieutenant Leo Carroll, however, are looking for a woman who wears a five and a half B shoe and who, it is asserted by them, left footprints in the mud of the abutment overlooking the scene of the drowning.

Near these dainty impressions police say were the coarser marks left by Todd.

Joseph Melnyk, aged 47 years, of 245 Smithfield street, who has been a helpless invalid since he was shot down on South Jefferson street, August 25, 1932, by Harry Kozameczak of Bessemer, ended the suffering which Kozameczak's act brought about this morning, when he strangled himself to death with an electric light cord.

Melnyk, formerly a teller in the People's Savings and Trust company, was shot through the spine by Kozameczak over an imagined grievance, it will be remembered. Since that time he has been paralyzed from his waist down, and recently has been suffering considerably, members of the family stated.

For some time after he was wounded, Melnyk's life was despaired of, but he eventually recovered enough to be taken to his home from the hospital, doomed to be a helpless cripple the remainder of his days.

French Policy To Be Changed

By WILLIAM PARKER

PARIS, April 17.—Marking a departure from a policy stubbornly adhered to since the close of the World war, France will send a note to Great Britain tonight, International News Service learned today, abandoning her demands for guarantees of French security as a prerequisite to disarmament.

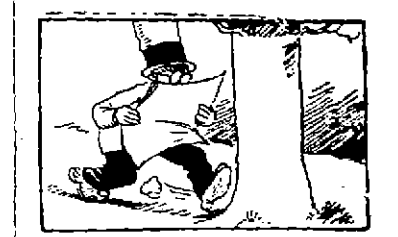

Decision to send the note, it was learned, was reached at a meeting of the ministerial council today.

France, will not, however, unequivocally abandon her historic position regarding guarantees of security.

She will insist, it was learned, that Great Britain covenant to insure the carrying out by Germany of the terms of any new arms agreement that may be reached.

With this reservation the note will inform Great Britain that France is now prepared to discuss disarmament on the basis of the present status of world armaments, indicating continued opposition to any increase in arms for Germany.

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, April 17.—
Miss Alice Barrows, mild-mannered, middle-aged government worker, who was hostess at the now famous dinner party at which Dr. William A. Wirt said he learned of the "brain trust" plans to overthrow the existing social order, took the witness stand before a house investigating committee today and flatly contradicted the educator's account of the event.

Miss Barrows presented the committee with a lengthy statement describing the dinner party, in which she said that the party was not a success as Dr. Wirt monopolized the conversation throughout the evening with his monetary theories "until we all were exhausted."

Not Mentioned
The names of Kerensky, Stalin, Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, and Assistant Secretary Rexford Tugwell were not mentioned during the evening she said. Nor was the president's name mentioned.

This was anent Dr. Wirt's testimony last week that Laurence Todd, correspondent of the Soviet news agency in Washington, had remarked that President Roosevelt was "only the Kerensky of this revolution," and would be succeeded by a Stalin.

Miss Barrows, a mild-mannered, middle-aged woman, appeared nervous as she took the witness chair. She was attired in a blue sweater.

Dear Pa New:

Due to the hard winter this has held back many of our wild flowers that should now be in bloom, and as this is National Wild Flower Week, those who are interested in seeing wild flowers cannot observe the Wild Flower festival at this time. We hope that when the woods do have their blooms of wild flowers that Trilliums, Jack-in-the-Pulpit, Hepatica, this later flower should never be picked for when the bloom is gone this prevents reseeding for which in time will cause this beautiful flower to disappear. Adder's tongue in years by have been very plentiful but as it has been eagerly sought after by wild flower hunters that today the picking of adder's tongue should be discouraged as it takes from seven to eight years for this flower to mature from the seed.

Party Registration Can't Be Changed For Coming Primary

There has been some question in the minds of voters concerning the right to change their registration from one party to the other before the primary, on May 15. It has been argued by some, that by going to the county commissioners or presenting themselves at the registry booths on April 25, any voter could change his party affiliation.

This is in error. No voter can change his registration unless he can show error upon the part of the registrar on the registration day he was listed in 1933.

In other words, voters who are registered Republicans are going to vote in the Republican primary and voters registered Democrats are going to vote in the Democratic primary. And neither Republican or Democrat is going to switch over for the primary unless he can show error.

County Solicitor William McElwee, Jr., was asked Monday what his opinion would be in the matter if it were formally presented to him. His reply was "if the matter were presented to me in regular channels I would be forced to render the opinion that no voter could change his registration between now and May 15, unless he can show error on the part of the registrar last year."

Most of the local railroaders have gone to Maryland, near Philadelphia, for their jobs, it is said.

PITTSBURGH April 17.—With three suspects under arrest today police drove with full force today to bring to justice the murderers of Constable Martin Pluter of Wall borough, whose bullet-riddled body was found in a street of that borough last night.

A few hours after a bullet pierced the heart of Pluter, 40 year old father of three children and Wall's sole peace officer, police took into custody three suspects. Those arrested gave their names as John Arenas, 22 son of a former constable, Andy Plesent and Paul Petrowich, Justice of the peace John Williams of Wallingford said Arenas was shot in the foot.

Several small boys playing near the scene of the shooting offered the only clue to its solution. They told authorities they saw a dark figure dart under the cover of night from the scene of the tragedy. Upon discovering Pluter's body police said he was unarmed and they were unable to find any gun near the lifeless form.

Pluter took office more than a year ago following the removal of George Arenas from office following his conviction on charges of extortion and conspiracy in a plot to "fix" a liquor case for a $150 fee.

House May Pass McLeod Measure

Speaker Rainey Says It Will Likely Be Favored By Lower Branch

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Encouraged by the admission of Speaker Rainey that the McLeod Bank Depositor's bill would pass the house, its sponsors continued their campaign today for the right to present it to the house.

The Rules committee, which makes up the program, cannot consider the question for several days, according to Chairman Bankhead (D) of Alabama.

Facing this delay, backers of the bill planned to attempt to persuade President Roosevelt and Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau to consider means of "thawing" deposits in closed banks as a means of stimulating business.

Information obtained from Chairman Jesse H. Jones of the RFC indicated that the remaining assets in closed banks are appraised at a billion dollars.

Rep. McLeod (R) of Michigan, author of the pay-off bill, contends that if the RFC takes over the assets and liquidates them over a ten-year period, the realization will be considerably greater.

told police the recluse had dinner with him on the Thursday night on which it is believed he died.

Todd, according to the police, was to meet Judge Jonathan B. Sanford and his son Kenneth Stanley Todd at Redding Center on the following morning, but he did not appear.

Mr. Kenneth telephoned Knorr to make inquiries.

Find Liquor Bottles.
Knorr found the door to Todd's house open and the lights still burning. A table on which there were two liquor bottles, three glasses and a pack of cards was surrounded by six chairs.

When this was reported to the son he asked the state police to investigate. On Saturday his body was found floating in the water a few feet from shore.

Death had come from drowning, said Medical Examiner William McMahon and the body had been in the water for more than 24 hours.

Had Large Sum.
The theory of murder for robbery was advanced when it was alleged that Todd had had between eight and ten thousand dollars on his person.

Police today were unable to find any evidence to support this rumor. They were unwilling to ascribe the death to bandits when an expensive diamond ring was found on the dead man's finger.

Neither would the officers say that Todd was a suicide, and they pointed out that they found his hat and his empty wallet some four hundred yards away from the apparent scene of his drowning.

In the meantime they were trying to locate a woman who it is said had been seen talking to Todd on Thursday afternoon on his enroute to Bell Island, three miles away.

New Milk Prices Being Discussed

Producers, Distributors And Dealers Open Public Hearing Today

FARMERS WILL GIVE VIEWPOINTS

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 17.—Seven phases of the milk control board's new price-fixing order will be discussed by producers, dealers and distributors at a public hearing held by the board today.

The hearing was called to obtain the views of both farmers and distributors on proposed changes in the price limits fixed for the sales of milk by dealers to other dealers, stores, hotels and restaurants.

Most important among the questions for consideration is the proposal to reduce the wholesale price to stores from eight and half to eight cents a quart to permit retail sales at nine and ten cents a higher profit.

combination suit, and wore a small blue hat. McGugin asked that Senator Reed be permitted to cross examine all six witnesses. The request was refused.

More Denials
Washington, April 17.—Categorical denials of Dr. William A. Wirt's charges that "brain trust" advisors of the administration sought to retard recovery and provoke an overthrow of the existing social order held sway today at the special congressional committee hearing into the Wirt allegations.

Witness after witness, men and women, assailed both Wirt and his charges. Picturing the Indiana educator as a tedious "monologist" in dinner party conversation and taking direct issue with "what Dr. Wirt said you said" at the party, Dr. Wirt alleged that Dr. Wirt had brought her name into the proceedings.

Miss Alice Barrows, middle-aged bureau of education worker. She denied the now-famous "Roosevelt-is-only-the-Kerensky" phrase figured in conversation at her party and expressed indignation that Dr. Wirt had brought her name into the proceedings.

Miss Hildegarde Kneeland, Agriculture department employee. She, too, denied the Wirt version of the dinner and, as for the evening discussion, she declared that Dr. Wirt held sway to such an extent that conversation "as we understand conversation" was impossible.

Laurence Todd, Soviet News Correspondent and descendant of an American revolutionary war colonel. Todd directly challenged Wirt's testimony that the correspondent was the author of the "Kerensky" phrase.

"I made no statement like that," said Todd, "nor anything that could be so distorted."

and then rolled himself out of the bed, strangling to death.

Corona Orville Potter, who was summoned by Mrs. Melnyk, pronounced his death as suicide.

Mrs. Melnyk stated that she had gone to her husband's room to make him comfortable, as his back was sore from lying in bed in the one position. He had been suffering much of late from the terrible wound inflicted by Kozameczak.

Dependent over his condition and realizing that he would never be better, Melnyk evidently decided to end his suffering this morning.

Kozameczak, who was tried for the shooting of Melnyk is now serving a term in the penitentiary. He stated after the shooting that he had committed the deed because of the loss of a legal paper, for which he believed Melnyk responsible.

Melnyk leaves his mother in Europe, his wife, Anna, and three children, Ellen, Lew and Henry Melnyk.

Avoid trite rhetorical phrases, such as "doomed to disappointment," "herculean efforts," "last but not least," etc.

Sole Peace Officer Is Assassinated While Walking Along Street

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH April 17.—With three suspects under arrest police drove with full force today to bring to justice the murderer of Constable Martin Plater of Wall whose bullet pierced body was found in a street of that borough last night.

A few hours after a bullet pierced the heart of Plater, 40 year old father of three children and Wall's sole peace officer, police took into custody three suspects. Those arrested gave their names as John Arenas, 22 son of a former constable, Andy Plesentich and Paul Petrovich. Justice of the peace John Williams of Wilmerding said Arenas was shot in the foot.

Several small boys playing near the scene of the shooting offered the only clue to its solution. They told authorities they saw a dark figure dart under the cover of night from the scene of the tragedy. Upon discovering Plater's body police said he was unarmed and they were unable to find any gun near the lifeless form.

Plater took office more than a year ago following the removal of George Arenas from office following his conviction on charges of extortion and conspiracy in a plot to "fix" a liquor case for a $150 fee.

Speaker Rainey Says It Will Likely Be Favored By Lower Branch

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Encouraged by the admission of Speaker Rainey that the McLeod Bank Depositor's bill would pass the house, its sponsors continued their campaign today for the right to present it to the house.

The Rules committee, which makes up the program, cannot consider the bill for several days according to Chairman Bankhead (D) of Alabama.

Facing this delay, backers of the bill planned to attempt to persuade President Roosevelt and Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau to consider means of "hawking" deposits in closed banks as a means of stimulating business.

Information obtained from Chairman Jesse H. Jones of the RFC indicated that remaining assets in closed banks are appraised at a billion dollars.

The President believes, said a formal White House statement, that such a policy as he planned should have a year in which to go into every phase of flying before recommending any permanent program. A study of the wester aviation and air mail legislation now pending before congress convinced the executive that while many of them are good as far as they go, none goes far enough.

When aviation legislation is enacted, the president wants it to provide a stable national policy. Such a base, he believes, cannot be built hurriedly.

Coroner Orville Potter, who was summoned by Mrs. Melnyk, pronounced his death as suicide.

Mrs. Melnyk stated that she had gone to her husband's room to make him comfortable, as his back was sore from lying in bed in the one position. He had been suffering much of late from the terrible wound inflicted by Kozameczak.

Despondent over his condition and realizing that he would never be better, Melnyk evidently decided to end his suffering this morning.

Kozameczak, who was tried for the shooting of Melnyk is now serving a term in the penitentiary. He stated after the shooting that he had committed the deed because of the loss of a legal paper, for which he believed Melnyk responsible.

Melnyk leaves his mother in Europe, his wife, Anna, and three children, Ellen, Lew and Henry Melnyk.

Sole Peace Officer Is Assassinated While Walking Along Street

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH April 17.—With three suspects under arrest police drove with full force today to bring to justice the murderer of Constable Martin Pluter of Wall whose bullet pierced body was found in a street of that borough last night.

A few hours after a bullet pierced the heart of Pluter, 40 year old father of three children and Wall's sole peace officer, police took into custody three suspects. Those arrested gave their names as John Arenas, 22 son of a former constable, Andy Plesentic and Paul Petrovich. Justice of the peace John Williams of Wilmerding said Arenas was shot in the foot.

Several small boys playing near the scene of the shooting offered the scene of the shooting. They told authorities they saw a dark figure dart under the cover of night from the scene of the tragedy. Upon discovering Pluter's body police said he was unarmed and they were unable to find any gun near the lifeless form.

Pluter took office more than a year ago following the removal of George Arenas from office following his conviction on charges of extortion and conspiracy in a plot to "fix" a liquor case for a $150 fee.

House May Pass McLeod Measure

Speaker Rainey Says It Will Likely Be Favored By Lower Branch

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Encouraged by the admission of Speaker Rainey that the McLeod Bank Depositor's bill would pass the house, its sponsors continued their campaign today for the right to present it to the house.

The Rules committee, which makes up the program, cannot consider the question for several days, according to Chairman Bankhead (D) of Alabama.

Facing this delay, backers of the bill planned to attempt to persuade President Roosevelt and Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau to consider means of "thawing" deposits in closed banks as a means of stimulating business.

Information obtained from Chairman Jesse H. Jones of the RFC indicated that remaining assets in closed banks are appraised at a billion dollars.

Rep. McLeod (R) of Michigan, author of the pay-off bill, contends that if the RFC takes over the assets and liquidates them over a ten-year period, the realization will be considerably greater.

With Speaker Rainey stating that he "would not be surprised" to see the house vote on the amended McLeod bill, sponsors insisted that Rainey use his influence with the Rules committee to assure a vote.

Wants Stable Policy.
The President believes, said a formal White House statement, that such a commission as he plans should have a year in which to go into every phase of flying before recommending any permanent program.

A study of the welter of aviation and airmail legislation now pending before congress convinced the executive that while many of them are good as far as they go, none goes far enough.

When aviation legislation is enacted, the president wants it to provide a stable national policy. Such a base, he believes, cannot be built hurriedly.

STRANGE FACTS IN DEATH OF RECLUSE PUZZLE OFFICIALS

told police the recluse had dinner with him on the Thursday night on which it is believed he died.

Todd, according to the police, was to meet Judge Jonathan B. Sanford and his son Kenneth Stanley Todd at Redding Center on the following morning and when he did not appear Kenneth telephoned Knorr to make inquiries.

Find Liquor Bottles.

Knorr found the door to Todd's house open and the lights still burning. A table on which there were two liquor bottles, three glasses and a pack of cards was surrounded by six chairs.

When this was reported to the son he asked the state police to investigate. On Saturday his body was found floating in the water a few feet from shore.

Death had come from drowning, said Medical Examiner William McMahon and the body had been in the water for more than 24 hours.

Had Large Sum.

The theory of murder for robbery was advanced when it was alleged that Todd had had between eight and ten thousand dollars on his person.

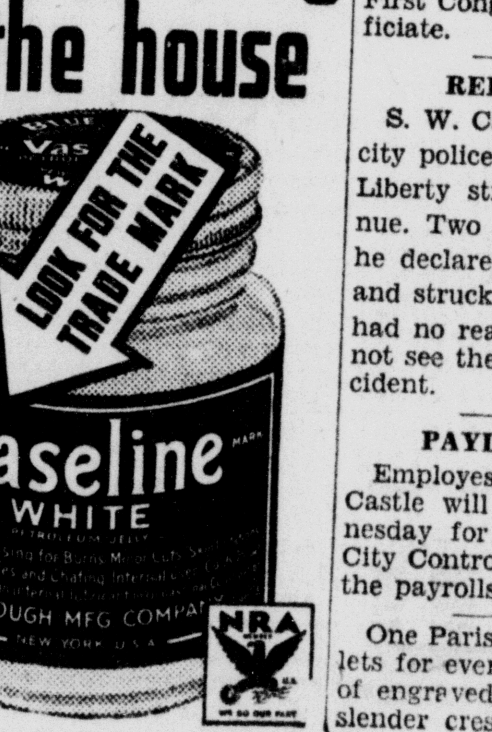

Police today were unable to find any evidence to support this rumor. They were unwilling to ascribe the death to bandits when an expensive diamond ring was found on the dead man's finger.

Neither would the officers say that Todd was a suicide, and they pointing out that they found his hat and his empty wallet some four hundred yards away from the apparent scene of his drowning.

In the meantime they were trying to locate a woman who it is said had been seen talking to Todd on Thursday afternoon on a bus enroute to Bell Island, three miles away.

Sir William Crookes, English chemist and physicist, inventor of the x-ray tube, died 15 years ago today.

I CAN'T DO IT
Perhaps I'm stubborn. (It's been suggested that I am.) Perhaps I'm lazy. (That's an idea, too.) And perhaps it's just that I don't like being put on the spot. . . . Whatever the reason, I don't think I'll write the letter.

It's one of those chain letters I've been asked to copy and send to nine of "the most intelligent" among my friends. If I do that, "good luck and good cheer will continue to follow this chain." The letter says: "The chain was started in Flanders by an American general in the artillery and must go around the world three times. Forward it, if possible, before 24 hours. During the nine days to follow, count the days, a happy event will take place and fill you with joy. If you take this as a joke, bad luck will befall you. Mr. Brown of Piccola won $250 on the ninth day. The Wilcox home burned down because they failed to take this seriously. Polina Negri attributes all her good luck to having carried out instructions."

And I ought to do it because all those other people did. . . . I'd be in good company, too. . . . I see the names of a Mrs. Alfred DuPont, of a Baron Atty, of a Judge Holme, of Pauline Lord and Joan Bennett and Spencer Tracy and Ann Pennington and Vivian Segal and lots of other people—and if they took the trouble to make nine copies and keep the chain going, then why shouldn't I do the same. It's such a little thing to ask—why don't I?

Well, I don't like the threat that something terrible will happen to me if I don't do it. . . . And I'm sorry for the postal service—think of the poor postman if every person made nine copies and sent them and every receiver made nine more and so on. . . . And I AM lazy and I AM cantankerous and I don't put much stock in that American artillery general in Flanders.

And perhaps I'm too superstitious to keep the fortune chain letter going on and on forever. . . . Those other people copied it and sent it because they WERE superstitious. For the same reason I'm NOT going to do it. I'm afraid my luck would change if I did. I'm sure something unfortunate would happen to me if I relied on a chain letter instead of my own energies or my personal luck.

CLEAN-UP WEEK—GET READY!
THE State Departments of Health, Welfare, Forests and Waters, and the Bureau of Fire Protection, State Police, have designated the week beginning Monday, April 23rd, as Clean-up Week.

The annual custom has always resulted in developing a statewide interest in sanitation and the removal of nuisances and fire hazards.

Cities, boroughs, small communities and individuals throughout the commonwealth are again urged to co-operate with the departments in the observance of these activities.

The following is suggested as a general guide for this observance:

Monday—April 23rd, Highway Day. All sidewalks and streets should be cleaned, gutters cleared, ditches opened and sewers flushed.

Tuesday—April 24th, Forestry Day. Do not burn brush, leaves, or other debris in or near the forests on dry, windy days. Select a damp, rainy day on which to burn, and do not leave the fire unguarded until it is entirely extinguished.

Do not smoke while fishing from the banks of streams, or while walking or riding through the woods. Take time out for a smoke and then be sure that the burning matches and tobacco are thoroughly extinguished by water or by burying them in moist soil.

Do not build camp fires among leaves or under overhanging brush. Scrape a cleared space free of leaves, and build the fire on the bare soil. Extinguish it thoroughly with water or with soil before leaving it.

Wednesday—April 25th, Fly and Mosquito Day. All cesspools should be cleaned and lined. Out-houses should be made fly-proof and stable yards, pig pens and chicken coops cleaned. Water holes should be filled, spouting mended and garbage cans thoroughly cleaned and scoured.

Thursday—April 26th, Junk Day. The accumulation of junk and trash, particularly in attics and cellars, consisting of old books, papers, clothes, rags, bottles, cans and ashes should be removed. In addition, cellars should be thoroughly cleaned and whitewashed.

KEEP UP-TO-DATE
The old ways won't do anymore. If you don't change with the changing world you'll find yourself far in the rear. It is easy to look back a few years and think how much better conditions were.

The fact that as followed then, was faithful and satisfactory but since then great changes have taken place.

If you are not modern enough to keep abreast of today's demands you'll be lost in the shuffle.

Many rapid and radical changes have taken place in nearly every line of effort and it is never 100 in the history of the world.

The majority of people have become more liberal in their views and ideas.

But the steps seem to be too long for most of us.

The situation must be accepted as it stands and the steps taken to meet it.

The fact that you accept it is not evidence that you prove it but what are you going to do about it?

You can't offset it by standing as an individual force.

You must combine with others for innovations.

TALK—HERE'S AN IDEA!
Had Carlyle lived in the day of the telephone it is probable that he would not have written that immortal axiom, "Speech is silver, silence is golden." It is certain that he would have made an exception of the telephone.

The world of Carlyle's day could not have conceived of and the world of today can hardly comprehend the magnitude of the telephone industry. Telephone and telegraph statistics resemble astronomical distances.

It is significant that the United States has 63 per cent of the world's telephones, Europe 26 per cent and the rest of the world 11 per cent. It is also significant that there are 13.7 telephones per hundred population in this country, while Europe has 1.3 and Asia but 0.1.

Fifty years ago the telephone was an impractical invention, representing so much wasted time for an equally impractical inventor. Now the American people each year talk 20,500,000,000 times over the telephone, Germany has 1,852,000,000 conversations over the wire and Japanese hello-girls make 1,741,000,000 connections every year.

Some importance must be attached to the fact that 71 per cent of the world's telephone lines are owned by private capital and that 88 per cent of the lines controlled by private capital are in the United States. Private ownership of the telephone, it is manifest, has been responsible for its growth in this country.

THE OLD FOGIES
Ah, me, those times of long ago. When miles were long and speed when miles were long and speed.

Those howl-and-pitcher days of old. When winter nights were bitter cold. And men and even women fair wore long and itchy underwear. And street car drivers all appeared with ice upon mustache and beard; For, whether wrong or whether right, The whiskers were a man's delight!

I tell my children phone and car inventions very recent are. They look at me in open doubt. And wonder how we lived without The comforts round about them thrown.

Which they of course have always known. I talk of walking and they smile. For they have never walked a mile. And I am sure they wonder how We all contrived to live till now.

Sometimes at pictures old they grin; Cry "beaver" at a bearded chin. They laugh at skirts and petticoats. And at the women's throats.

But what they don't quite understand Is everything at their command. Which they enjoy was made for them.

By those old fogies they condemn. Some fun follow with a beard. The path of progress pioneered.

Husband, in store with wife—How will this cloth do for your dress? Wife—It won't do at all. Nobody's wearing it.

Husband—Then how about this other kind? Is sure is beautiful. Wife—It won't do either. Everybody's wearing it.

So, "Roosevelt is the Kerensky of this revolution." Thank goodness! Nobody had to pay the debts Kerensky made.

TIME TO RENOVIZE AGAIN
Last spring a good many American communities inaugurated renovation campaigns, during which local citizens were urged to have their property inspected, and make necessary and valuable additions, alterations and repairs.

The campaign provided thousands of jobs. It sent money through a hundred major industries. Essential improvements were obtained at a fraction of what they would have cost a few years earlier.

This spring and summer should see additional campaigns of the same order. The need for employment is almost as great as it was a year ago. The construction industry is still lagging behind business in general.

That peeling paint—the leaky roof—that ancient wiring which presents a constant fire hazard—that outmoded heating plant—that old plumbing—that rickety garage—those cracked steps and walks—now is the time to fix and change them. It doesn't matter whether you have ten dollars to spend or ten thousand—in either case you are doing your bit to spur recovery, and you are getting bargain values.

A SAGA OF THE NORTHLAND
The final thrilling chapter has been written in the most dramatic story of the Far North with the rescue of the last of more than a hundred persons who were marooned for two months on a drifting ice floe in the Arctic ocean.

It is a saga of the air, as it is due to the courage and skill of the Soviet flyers that the former ice-bound refugees again are in safety. We forgot such a triviality as nationality when we think of the flyer who rescued 25 of the refugees in five trips in a two-passenger plane, necessitating tying some of them to the underwing of the craft. It was a brave deed, and will be related for years to come as an outstanding example of daring and humanitarianism in a region which demands the strongest attributes of manhood.

The slogan that made America great was "Let's go," not "Let's watch him."

Perhaps the easiest way to meet people you wish to impress is to decide not to have this morning.

FRANK MCCONNELL AGAIN.
St. Cloud, Fla., April 11, 1934.

My Dear Friends Of Old New Castle, Pa.:
Well folks, as I told you in first letter—all I know is what I read in the good old News and whippersnappers gleamed, and say I sure got a big hand by having the engineer place my first letter right in the middle of "Hints and Dints," surrounded by literary gems and classics. Just the place you particular folks look for something choice, as it were, etc., and I'm glad Fred has honored me again.

Now good folks I want to tell of an incident which reveals the real character of New Castle's grand Old Man; giving you a close up of a real man in the midst of ripe mirth.

This happened several years ago when Fred and party always blew into St. Cloud to call on old friends who lived in New Castle years ago. Well, of course, Fred made for our back yard at once to sample our ripe mulberries and it was a sight to see him wrap his sweet blue mouth around the luscious berries while the crowd gathered the fruit for him. Say folks, did you ever watch one of these old time threshing machines at work, where a man stands on a platform feeding in the sheaves? Well, Fred imitated this fellow to a tee.

Well folks, our little bank robbery is still in the kindergarten with a wet nurse in charge and everybody so proud the way it was pulled off. Only one unpleasant incident to mar the whole show, and that was about a lady customer who insisted in "dolling up" for such an unusual occasion, when the leading man said, "I don't care a 'Pearson Mill Dam' what you want, get flattened out or I'll make a sifter of you."

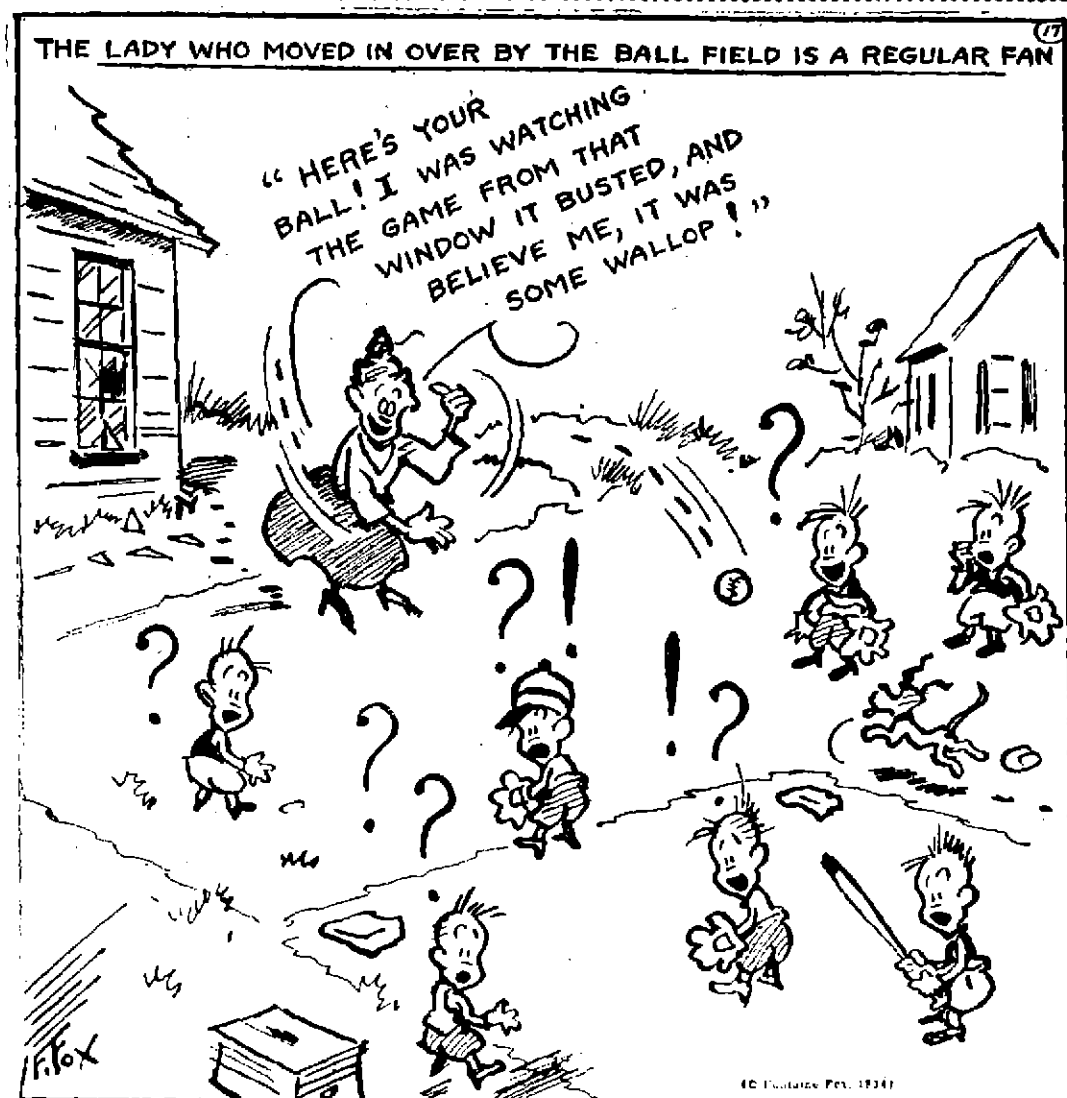

Folks, the only real thrill we have gotten out of our own dear little bank robbery was a report one of the alleged robbers was so indignant as to remain near here and have some fun with his share of the spoils, which he rolled up like a ball of carpet tags, delighting to visit a pool room where in great glee kicked the roll of "green" over the floor when the Prop. says to himself, "that baby sure has a swell roll and needs a guardian." So, several Sheriff's were sent for and the guy was recognized as one of Dillinger's sidekicks in the St. Cloud bank job, where he now—laughes till a wooden pistol or proper influence is brought to bear on our Co. sher-

When the usual "skidoo" will be pulled. We got another thrill out of it, too. One of the bank officials got a telegram from Tampa to expect another visit soon from the same gang as they were so well pleased with the fine reception and nice response, besides being able to entirely clean out the bank, even to a few stray pieces of chewing gum; but, if these fellows really call again, we'll sure get the constable after them even if the town wants to be mum about it.

Well folks, I like to write even if I'm not in the same class with Will Rogers and Eddie Cantor, and don't ever think I ever pull down ten grand per week as some others, yet I honestly like to write by giving a few facts dipped in the hot grease of fiction.

So this will be all I'll say about Sir Sidney for this time.

Just one more item, then I'm thru. On the morning of last February, the 9th, in New Castle, Pa., the thermometer stood at 25 degrees below while at noon it was 78 degrees above in the shade here and these figures are for real. This is why you Northern folks down here can go in bathing outdoors while those who stay at home stand around in their shirt-tails shivering.

So long till the next time.

F. D. R. Support For Progressives

NEW YORK, April 17.—Have you observed that the wars which threatened the world a few months ago seem to have vanished? In the excitement over domestic affairs, Americans have lost sight of world affairs.

But not the Roosevelt administration.

When the history of that administration is written, there probably will be a few words concerning the calming influence of that administration. Kindly hands now reach across the Pacific. And there is a pacific influence in Europe.

IT'S AN ILL WIND
Railroads, steamship lines and hotels in the United States are expecting a record summer.

With a depreciated dollar buying only half as much as formerly abroad, traffic to foreign countries will be light.

And British steamship lines, in order to increase trade, are offering "See America" tours.

LA FOLLETTE
It looks from New York as if President Roosevelt will support two Progressives for re-election—Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin and Senator Bronson Cutting of New Mexico.

The president is believed to have overruled Postmaster General Farley, who previously had said the administration would support Democratic candidates for the senate in those states.

Supporters of the president have told him he can count more on the progressives than on old-time Democrats. He undoubtedly knew that, but likely has difficulty having his party understand that.

With presidential support, La Follette and Cutting can carry their respective states, it is believed.

History's Great Days April 17, 1610
—In a ship the size of a river ferryboat, Henry Hudson, the navigator, ventured upon a notable voyage into the unknown. He sailed from London in the Discovery, 55 tons, to seek again a Northwest Passage to the Orient. What he found was the Straits that now bears his name, and mutiny and death.

A year earlier he had visited the site of New York and put Hudson River upon the map. Four great geographical landmarks of the world, river, bay, strait and territory, named for him now were not his discoveries. An island which he did discover and name for himself, now is called something else.

Apr. 17, 1521—Martin Luther, 38, was brought before the German diet convened at Worms, on the Rhine, by Emperor Charles V to explain the protests (against traffic in indulgences) which made him the first Protestant. He refused to recant, excommunicated his determination in the famous words:

"Here I stand. I cannot do otherwise. God help me."

The Diet ordered his books burned. His excommunication; it thereby started a wave of Protestantism rolling across the world.

Luther began the greatest religious struggle in history by his opposition to indulgences, but he himself granted Philip, Landgrave of Hesse, indulgence to commit bigamy and have two wives!

Apr. 17, 1790—Benjamin Franklin, whom many foreign historians regard as the greatest American, died at 84.

His family line survives today through the illegitimate son of his illegitimate son.

Apr. 17, 1848—Christopher "Kit" Carson, 39, strapping Kentuckian, left California with the first United States mail ever taken overland to the Atlantic and the first news pressed his determination in the famous words:

Weekly Health Talk

"And finally, an annual visit to the doctor's office for a physical examination represents one of the wisest precautionary measures known to science. The thoughtful and intelligent persons will reasonably abide by the simple rules of nature and thus the average live longer and happier than the fastidiously cranks and the indifferent who have the cards stacked against them."

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

Work has begun recently on the demolition of some 600 year old stables in the courtyard of the "pantheon" in Hampton Heath, which according to tradition, were used by Dick Turpin to accommodate his famous mare Black Bess. He himself is said to have slept in the loo of the stables.

The owner of the premises was reluctant to destroy the link with the highwayman, but, owing to the increasing danger of passing traffic and the possible collapse of the structure, he decided it was the only safe course.

Fifty years ago the telephone was an impractical invention, representing so much wasted time for an equally impractical inventor. Now the American people each year talk 20,500,000,000 times over the telephone, Germany has 1,852,000,000 conversations over the wire and Japanese hello-girls make 1,741,000,000 connections every year.

Some importance must be attached to the fact that 71 per cent of the world's telephone lines are owned by private capital and that 88 per cent of the lines controlled by private capital are in the United States. Private ownership of the telephone, it is manifest, has been responsible for its growth in this country.

TIME TO RENOVIZE AGAIN

Last spring a good many American communities inaugurated renovation campaigns, during which local citizens were urged to have their property inspected, and make necessary and valuable additions, alterations and repairs.

The campaign provided thousands of jobs. It sent money through a hundred major industries. Essential improvements were obtained at a fraction of what they would have cost a few years earlier.

This spring and summer should see additional campaigns of the same order. The need for employment is almost as great as it was a year ago. The construction industry is still lagging behind business in general.

That peeling paint—the leaky roof—that ancient wiring which presents a constant fire hazard—that outmoded heating plant—that old plumbing—that rickety garage—those cracked steps and walks—now is the time to fix and change them. It doesn't matter whether you have ten dollars to spend or ten thousand—in either case you are doing your bit to spur recovery, and you are getting bargain values.

A SAGA OF THE NORTHLAND

The final thrilling chapter has been written in the most dramatic story of the Far North with the rescue of the last of more than a hundred persons who were marooned for two months on a drifting ice floe in the Arctic ocean.

It is a saga of the air, as it is due to the courage and skill of the Soviet flyers that the former ice-bound refugees again are in safety. We forget such a triviality as nationality when we think of the flyer who rescued 25 of the refugees in five trips in a two-passenger plane, necessitating tying some of them to the underwing of the craft. It was a brave deed, and will be related for years to come as an outstanding example of daring and humanitarianism in a region which demands the strongest attributes of manhood.

The slogan that made America great was "Let's go," not "Let's watch him."

A boyhood friend of your age is still one of the boys; a stranger at your age is an old guy.

Perhaps the easiest way to meet people you wish to impress is to decide not to shave this morning.

I CAN'T DO IT

Perhaps I'm stubborn. (It's been suggested that I am.) Perhaps I'm lazy. (That's an idea, too.) And perhaps it's just that I don't like being put on the spot. Whatever the reason, I don't think I'll write the letter.

It's one of those chain letters I've been asked to copy and send to nine of "the most intelligent" among my friends. If I do that, "good luck and good cheer" will continue to follow this chain. The letter says: "The chain was started in Flanders by an American general in the artillery and must go around the world three times. Forward, if possible, before 24 hours. During the nine days to follow, count the days, a happy event will take place and fill you with joy. If you take this as a joke, bad luck will befall you. Mr. Brown of Fictoria won $250 on the ninth day. The Wilcox home burned down because they failed to take this seriously. Pola Negri attributes all her good luck to having carried out instructions."

And I ought to do it because all those other people did. I'd be in good company, too. I see the names of a Mrs. Alfred Dupont, of a Baron Alney, of a Judge Holme, of Pauline Lord and Joan Bennett and Spencer Tracy and Ann Pennington and Vivian Segal and lots of other people—and if they took the trouble to make nine copies and keep the chain going, then why shouldn't I do the same. It's such a little thing to ask—why don't I?

Well, I don't like the threat that something terrible will happen to me if I don't do it. And I'm sorry for the postal service—think of the poor postman if every person made nine copies and sent them and every receiver made nine more and so on. And I AM lazy and I AM not superstitious and I don't put much stock in that American artillery general in Flanders.

And perhaps I'm too superstitious to keep the fortune chain letter going on and on forever. . . . Those other people copied it and sent it because they WERE superstitious. For the same reason I'm NOT going to do it. I'm afraid my luck would change if I did. I'm sure something unfortunate would happen to me if I relied on a chain letter instead of my own energies or my personal luck.

KEEP UP-TO-DATE

The old ways won't do anymore. If you don't change with the changing world you'll find yourself far in the rear.

It is easy to look back a few years and think how much better conditions were.

Procedure, as followed then, was faithful and satisfactory but since then great changes have taken place.

If you are not modern enough to keep abreast of today's demands you'll be lost in the shuffle.

Many rapid and radical changes have taken place in nearly every line of effort and as never before in the history of the world.

The majority of people have become more liberal in their views and ideas.

But the steps seem to be too long for most of us.

The situation must be accepted as it stands and the steps taken to meet it.

The fact that you accept it is not evidence that you prove it but what are you going to do about it?

You can't offset it by standing as an individual force.

You must combine with others for innovations.

Meantime, attune yourself to what exists.

THE OLD FOGIES

Ah, me, those times of long ago. When miles were long and speed was slow.

Those bow-and-pitcher days of old when winter nights were bitter cold. And men and even women fair wore long and itchy underwear.

And street car drivers all appeared with ice upon mustach and beard; For, whether wrong or whether right.

Then whiskers were a man's delight!

I tell my children phone and car inventions very recent are.

They look at me in open doubt. And wonder how we lived without the comforts round about them thrown.

Which they of course have always known.

I talk of walking and they smile. For they have never walked a mile. And I am sure they wonder how we all contrived to live till now.

Sometimes at pictures old they grin; Cry "beaver" at a bearded chin. They laugh at skirts and petticoats. And whisper to the women's throats.

But what they don't quite understand. Is everything at their command. Which they enjoy was made for them.

By those old fogies they condemn. Some funny fellow with a beard. The path of progress pioneered.

Husband, in store with wife—How will this cloth do for your dress? Wife: "It won't do at all. Nobody's wearing it."

FRANK MCCONNELL AGAIN.
St. Cloud, Fla.
April 11, 1934.

My Dear Friends Of Old New Castle, Pa.:
I told you in my first letter that I know what I read in the good old News and whistlings gleamed, and say I sure got a big hand by having the engineer place my first letter right in the middle of "Hints and Dints," surrounded by literary gems and classics. Just the place you particular folks look for something choice, as it were, etc., and I'm glad Fred has honored me again.

Now good folks I want to tell of an incident which reveals the real character of New Castle's grand old man; giving you a close up of a real man in the midst of ripe mulberries.

This happened several years ago when Fred and party always blew into St. Cloud to call on old friends who lived in New Castle years ago. Well, of course, Fred made for our back yard at once to sample our ripe mulberries and it was a sight to see him wrap his sweet blue mouth around the luscious berries while the crowd gathered the fruit for him. Say folks, did you ever watch one of these old time threshing machines at work, where a man stands on a platform feeding in the sheaves? Well, Fred imitated this fellow to a tee.

Well folks, our little bank robbery is still in the kindergarten with a wet nurse in charge and everybody so proud the way it was pulled off. Only one unpleasant incident to mar the whole show, and that was about a lady customer who insisted in "dolling up" for such an unusual occasion, when the leading man said, "I don't care a 'Pearson Mill Dam' what you want, get flattened out or I'll make a sifter of you."

Folks, the only real thrill we have gotten out of our own dear little bank robbery was a report one of the alleged robbers was so indolgent as to remain near home and have some fun with his share of the spoils, which he rolled up like a ball of carpet rags, delighting to visit a pool room where in great glee kicked the roll of "greens" over the floor when the Prop. says to himself— "that baby sure has a swell roll and needs a guard." So several Sham-luffs were sent for and the guy was recognized as one of Dillinger's sidekicks in the St. Cloud bank job, where he now—languishes till a wooden plait or proper influence is brought to bear on our Co. sherriff when the usual "skidoo" will be pulled. We got another thrill out of it, too. One of the bank officials got a telegram from Tampa to expect another visit soon from the same gang as they were so well pleased with the fine reception and nice response, besides being able to entirely clean out the bank, even to a few stray pieces of chewing gum; but if these fellows really call again, we'll sure get the constable after them even if the town wants to be mum about it.

Well folks, I like to write even if I'm not in the same class with Will Rogers and Eddie Cantor, and don't ever think I ever pull down ten grand per week as some others, yet I honestly like to write by giving a few facts dipped in the hot grease of fiction.

You folks don't care a picayune for real truthful statements as of old, but instead like it little and sweet like a modern evening gown.

Say folks, sometime I'm going to tell you a few about our own Sid McKay who was born in the classic precincts of Sheep Hill at a very early age, but in St. Cloud he is known as the Grand Old Man here with his million dollar smile, etc., always ready to help others forget their troubles, besides being able to tell you a few about our own Sid McKay who was born in the classic precincts of Sheep Hill CLEAN-UP WEEK—GET READY!

THE State Departments of Health, Welfare, Forests and Waters, and the Bureau of Fire Protection, State Police, have designated the week beginning Monday, April 23rd, as Clean-up Week.

The annual custom has always resulted in developing a statewide interest in sanitation and the removal of nuisances and fire hazards.

Cities, boroughs, small communities and individuals throughout the commonwealth are again urged to co-operate with the departments in the observance of these activities.

The following is suggested as a general guide for this observance:

Monday—April 23rd, Highway Day. All sidewalks and streets should be cleaned, gutters cleared, ditches opened and sewers flushed.

Tuesday—April 24th, Forestry Day. Do not burn brush, leaves, or other debris in or near the forests on dry, windy days. Select a damp, rainy day on which to burn, and do not leave the fire unguarded until it is entirely extinguished.

Do not smoke while fishing from the banks of streams, or while walking or riding through the woods. Take time out for a smoke and then be sure that the burning matches and tobacco are thoroughly extinguished by water or by burying them in moist soil.

Do not build camp fires among leaves or under overhanging brush. Scrape a cleared space free of leaves, and build the fire on the bare soil. Extinguish it thoroughly with water or with soil before leaving it.

Wednesday—April 25th, Fly and Mosquito Day. All cess-pools should be cleaned and lined. Out-houses should be made fly-proof and stable yards, pig pens and chicken coops cleaned. Water holes should be filled, spouting mended and garbage cans thoroughly cleaned and scoured.

Thursday—April 26th, Junk Day. The accumulation of junk and trash, particularly in attics and cellars, consisting of old books, papers, clothes, rags, bottles, cans and ashes should be removed. In addition, cellars should be thoroughly cleaned and whitewashed.

TALK—HERE'S AN IDEA!

Had Carlyle lived in the day of the telephone it is probable that he would not have written that immortal axiom, "Speech is silver, silence is golden." It is certain that he would have made an exception of the telephone.

The world of Carlyle's day could not have conceived of and the world of today can hardly comprehend the magnitude of the telephone industry. Telephone and telegraph statistics resemble astronomical distances.

It is significant that the United States has 63 per cent of the world's telephones, Europe 26 per cent and the rest of the world 11 per cent. It is also significant that there are 13.7 telephones per hundred population in this country, while Europe has 1.3 and Asia but 0.1. Fifty years ago the telephone was an impractical invention, representing so much wasted time for an equally impractical inventor. Now the American people each year talk 20,500,000,000 times over the telephone, Germany has 1,852,000,000 conversations over the wire and Japanese hello-girls make 1,741,000,000 connections every year.

Some importance must be attached to the fact that 71 per cent of the world's telephone lines are owned by private capital and that 88 per cent of the lines controlled by private capital are in the United States. Private ownership of the telephone, it is manifest, has been responsible for its growth in this country.

TIME TO RENOVIZE AGAIN

Last spring a good many American communities inaugurated renovation campaigns, during which local citizens were urged to have their property inspected, and make necessary and valuable additions, alterations and repairs.

The campaign provided thousands of jobs. It sent money through a hundred major industries. Essential improvements were obtained at a fraction of what they would have cost a few years earlier.

This spring and summer should see additional campaigns of the same order. The need for employment is almost as great as it was a year ago. The construction industry is still lagging behind business in general.

That peeling paint—the leaky roof—that ancient wiring which presents a constant fire hazard—that outmoded heating plant—that old plumbing—that rickety garage—those cracked steps and walks—now is the time to fix and change them. It doesn't matter whether you have ten dollars to spend or ten thousand—in either case you are doing your bit to spur recovery, and you are getting bargain values.

A SAGA OF THE NORTHLAND

The final thrilling chapter has been written in the most dramatic story of the Far North with the rescue of the last of more than a hundred persons who were marooned for two months on a drifting ice floe in the Arctic ocean.

It is a saga of the air, as it is due to the courage and skill of the Soviet flyers that the former ice-bound refugees again are in safety. We forgot such a triviality as nationality when we think of the flyer who rescued 25 of the refugees in five trips in a two-passenger plane, necessitating tying some of them to the underwing of the craft. It was a brave deed, and will be related for years to come as an outstanding example of daring and humanitarianism in a region which demands the strongest attributes of manhood.

The slogan that made America great was "Let's go," not "Let's watch him."

A boyhood friend of your age is still one of the boys; a stranger of your age is an old guy.

Perhaps the easiest way to meet people you wish to impress is to decide not to shave this morning.

I CAN'T DO IT

Perhaps I'm stubborn. (It's been suggested that I am.) Perhaps I'm lazy. (That's an idea, too.) And perhaps it's just that I don't like being put on the spot. . . . Whatever the reason, I don't think I'll write the letter.

It's one of those chain letters I've been asked to copy and send to nine of "the most intelligent" among my friends. If I do that, "good luck and good cheer" will continue to follow this chain. The letter says: "The chain was started in Flanders by an American general in the artillery and must go around the world three times. Forward, if possible, before 24 hours. During the nine days to follow, count the days, a happy event will take place and fill you with joy. If you take this as a joke, bad luck will befall you. Mr. Brown of Fictoria won $250 on the ninth day. The Wilcox home burned down because they failed to take this seriously. Pola Negri attributes all her good luck to having carried out instructions."

And I ought to do it because all those other people did. . . . I'd be in good company, too. . . . I see the names of a Mrs. Alfred DuPont, of a Baron Alney, of a Judge Holme, of Pauline Lord and Joan Bennett and Spencer Tracy and Ann Pennington and Vivian Seale and lots of other people—and if they took the trouble to make nine copies and keep the chain going, then why shouldn't I do the same. It's such a little thing to ask—why don't I?

Well, I don't like the threat that something terrible will happen to me if I don't do it. . . . And I'm sorry for the postal service—think of the poor postman if every person made nine copies and sent them and every receiver made nine more and so on. . . . And I AM lazy and I AM cantankerous and I don't put much stock in that American artillery general in Flanders.

And perhaps I'm too superstitious to keep the fortune chain letter going on and on forever. . . . Those other people copied it and sent it because they WERE superstitious. For the same reason I'm NOT going to do it. I'm afraid my luck would change if I did. I'm sure something unfortunate would happen to me if I relied on a chain letter instead of my own energies or my personal luck.

KEEP UP-TO-DATE

The old ways won't do anymore. If you don't change with the changing world you'll find yourself far in the rear.

It is easy to look back a few years and think how much better conditions were.

If you are not modern enough to keep abreast of today's demands you'll be lost in the shuffle. Many rapid and radical changes have taken place in nearly every line of effort and as never before in the history of the world.

The majority of people have become more liberal in their views and ideas.

But the steps seem to be too long for most of us.

The situation must be accepted as it stands and the steps taken to meet it.

The fact that you accept it is not evidence that you prove it but what are you going to do about it?

You can't offset it by standing as an individual force.

You must combine with others for innovations.

Meantime, attune yourself to what exists.

THE OLD FOGIES

Ah, me, those times of long ago. When miles were long and speed was slow:

Those bowl-and-pitcher days of old When winter nights were bitter cold. And men and even women fair Wore long and itchy underwear, And street car drivers all appeared With ice upon mustache and beard; For, whether wrong or whether right,

Then whiskers were a man's delight!

I tell my children phone and car Inventions very recent are. They look at me in open doubt And wonder how we lived without The comforts round about them thrown.

Which they of course have always known. I talk of walking and then smile, For they have never walked a mile. And I am sure they wonder how We all contrived to live till now.

Sometimes at pictures old they grin; Cry "beaver" at a bearded chin. They laugh at skirts and petticoats And whalebone at the women's throats.

But what they don't quite understand Is everything at their command Which they enjoy was made for them.

By those old fogies they condemn. Some funny fellow with a beard The path of progress pioneered.

Husband, in store with wife—How will this clothe you for dress? Wife: "It won't do at all. Nobody's wearing it."

Husband—Then how about this other kind? It sure is beautiful. Wife: "It won't do either. Everybody's wearing it."

So, "Roosevelt" is the Kerensky of this revolution. Thank goodness! Nobody had to pay the debts Kerensky made.

The World At A Glance

Wars Have Vanished
"See America" This Year
F. D. R. Support For ProgressivesBy LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, April 17.—Have you observed that the wars which threatened the world a few months ago seem to have vanished? In the excitement over domestic affairs, Americans have lost sight of world affairs.

But not the Roosevelt administration. When the history of that administration is written, there probably will be a few words concerning the calming influence of that administration. Kindly hands now reach across the Pacific. And there is a pacific influence in Europe.

IT'S AN ILL WIND
Railroads, steamship lines and hotels in the United States are expecting a record summer.

With a depreciated dollar buying only half as much as formerly abroad, traffic to foreign countries will be light.

And British steamship lines, in order to increase trade, are offering "See America" tours.

LA FOLLETTE
It looks from New York as if President Roosevelt will support two Progressives for re-election—Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin and Senator Bronson Cutting of New Mexico.

The president is believed to have overruled Postmaster General Farley, who previously had said the administration would support Democratic candidates for the senate in those states.

Supporters of the president have told him he can count more on the progressives than on old-time Democrats. (He undoubtedly knew that, but likely has difficulty having his party understand that.)

With presidential support, La Follette and Cutting can carry their respective states, it is believed.

Wall Street desires to see both defeated. La Follette is the chief proponent of "higher taxes for the rich."

A REPORTER'S VIEW
A reporter who "covered" the hearing of William Wirt, Gary, Ind., school superintendent, visited New York today.

He remarked: "As this man sat on the stand, talking and talking, I did feel real alarm for the youth of the nation. If he is a school superintendent, then what of the education of our youth?"

"Dr. Wirt may be a kindly gentleman, he might even have evolved a physical system to train a large number of students at once, but I could not help wondering whether his own learning and breadth of vision were sufficient? Yet, for all I know, he may be one of the better educators in the lower schools. If so, I wonder, then, whether our schools have kept pace with the world and the economic and social evolution?"

YOUTH
Many educators are saying that we are losing sight of our youth.

A whole generation is drifting because there are no jobs, because there is a lack of vocational and cultural training.

While the older generations squabble and quibble over the nature of the evolution of our affairs, youth is left stranded and desolate. Yet it is youth that will have to rescue us, for with another turn of the wheel the majority of the older generation will be dead.

F. D. R. SURE
Washington correspondents say that President Roosevelt returned to Washington surer than ever of his strength with congress. Men who "cover" him said he knew he would be.

Not much of a constructive nature was accomplished in his absence.

History's Great Days April 17, 1610

—In a ship the size of a river ferry-boat, Henry Hudson, the navigator, ventured upon a notable voyage into the unknown Arctic. He sailed from London in the Discovery, 55 tons, to seek again a Northwest Passage to the Orient. What he found was the Strait that now bears his name, and mutiny and death.

A year earlier he had visited the site of New York and put Hudson River upon the map. Four great geographical landmarks of the world, river, bay, strait and territory, named for him now were not his discoveries. An island which he did discover and name for himself, now is called something else.

April 17, 1521—Martin Luther, 38, was brought before the German diet convened at Worms, on the Rhine, by Emperor Charles V to explain the protests (against traffic in indulgences) which made him the first Protestant. He refused to recant, expressed his determination in the famous words:

"Here I stand. I cannot do otherwise. God help me."

The diet ordered his books burned, his excommunication; it thereby started a wave of Protestantism rolling across the world.

Luther began the greatest religious struggle in history by his opposition to indulgences, but he himself granted Philip, Landgrave of Hesse, indulgence to commit bigamy and have two wives!

April 17, 1790—Benjamin Franklin, whom many foreign historians regard as the greatest American, died at 84.

His family line survives today through the illegitimate son of his illegitimate son.

April 17, 1848—Christopher "Kit" Carson, 39, strapping Kentuckian, left California with the first United States mail ever taken overland to the Atlantic; the first news which the East received of the discovery of gold.

Weekly Health Talk

"In spite of the many so-called refinements now offered as aids to health and its development, there are after all only a few fundamental principles that need be followed in the majority of cases to attain these ends. However, the fact that they are rather commonplace makes them far from being as attractive as their worth justifies," states Dr. Theodore B. Appel, state secretary of health.

"For example, fresh air does not come in packages, nor must one reach into his pocketbook to get it. Literally, there are thousands of persons who refuse to recognize the great advantages to be derived by remaining outdoors as much as possible, by breathing deeply and steadily, and walking erect. Walking, and indeed any form of outdoor exercise, to such people, has no appeal whatsoever. They thus deny themselves one of the greatest of natural tonics.

"Again, large numbers of persons live to eat rather than eat to live. A moderate use of all types of food, barring illness, is a logical rule to follow. Over-eating is a popular pastime, under-eating a popularfad. Both are detrimental in the long run to best health interests.

"Then, too, many people become ill or half ill through faulty habits of elimination. Constipation is the bane of a sedentary life. Habitual constipation should not be tolerated. The physician's advice in all cases should be sought. Self-administered regulators should not be relied upon to cure this condition.

"Mouth-hygiene is also essential. The teeth should be cleaned intelligently and thoroughly at least twice daily. See that the dentist gets an opportunity to examine the mouth regularly every six months. If one is a victim of headache or eye strain the eyes should be investigated and the necessary corrections made.

"Also in these rosy days of repeal many persons are forgetting that the medical men the world over are against the habitual use of alcohol. It is a narcotic drug. It can do no one any good as a beverage. Used as a regular stimulant it shortens life and decreases physical and mental energy. It may be interesting to know that the death rate in excess of standard for steady, moderate drinkers is 86 percent, for these having been excessive in the past 50 percent, and for very moderate drinkers 18 percent.

"Regarding other stimulants such as tobacco, tea and coffee, moderation in this connection can only be defined by the tolerance each individual has for them. There are many people to whom the use of too much tea and coffee is harmful.

WRITES ABOUT VIADUCT

In answer to the item in The News on April 7, in which Dick Cook asked, "Why we don't put this project to the people and let them vote on it?" Why bless your heart, this viaduct has been talked about for fifty years. Passed one grand jury because we moved the viaduct's location, which was about one hundred feet, to make it safer and better, then they had to object to the best project in the city. What the people in New Castle and Lawrence County need is a vision. The Bible says "without a vision" we perish.

There has always been a kick that we did not have the money. Now we have a gift of fifty-eight thousand dollars to be used for this viaduct and then a loan for the rest of the money, with a small interest, and twenty years to pay it back. There are those who wouldn't want this of course, for they don't believe in the Progress of New Castle, or Lawrence County. They wouldn't want it. I am a heavy taxpayer and believe in providing for the unemployed, and God knows there are thousands of men out of work. Now then, it means nearly two hundred thousand dollars turned loose in New Castle and Lawrence County, and a year or two's work. Now let's get the vision, and cut out all selfishness and go to work.

Every one knows that for the last twenty-five years it has been the machine age. All one has to do is press a button and the whole works starts. This has thrown thousands of men out of work. So now let's help build up New Castle. I am willing to pay my share of taxes and let us

CONFUSION ENDED ON BRAN

New Ruling Makes Labels Accurate

To protect the buying public, the United States Food and Drug Administration has advised that every package of cereal labeled "Bran" state on the label exactly what it contains.

Before this ruling, even part-bran products were sometimes mistakenly referred to as "Bran." It was not easy for the purchaser to distinguish between a cereal that was entirely bran, or all bran with flavoring, and another that was mostly wheat.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is labeled
"ALL-BRAN Deliciously Flavored with Malt, Sugar and Salt," a statement which describes the product fairly and honestly.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has won millions of friends because it corrects most types of common constipation safely and pleasantly. It furnishes genuine "bulk" needed to promote normal elimination.

However, ALL-BRAN is not a "cure-all." Certain types of intestinal disorders should be treated only on a physician's advice.

When you buy a bran cereal, for the relief of constipation, read the wording on the package. The facts are there! Make sure by asking for Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. It furnishes "bulk" in a form for satisfactory results.

not forget that we are going to have higher taxes, whether the City of New Castle progresses or not. If we don't make work for the unemployed, we will have to keep them anyway. So let's all get the vision. For a high level viaduct 600 feet long from the East side to the North side of the city. It will link up six paved highways entering New Castle, thus relieving heavy downtown traffic congestion. It will also afford easy access to the Senior and Junior high schools, hospitals, parks, firehouses, consistory building, two large cemeteries, and many other places, built on the high level. Get busy, and help. Build this project that will be a monument to progress for New Castle, and Lawrence County. It will help us all. Roosevelt is trying and doing all he can to help us and with God's help he has made up this gift, which is meant for us to use, and go ahead.

Brother Grangers, and all city people that are opposed to construction of the Croton and North Hill viaduct, did you see in the April 12 issue of the New Castle News that the administration stated more than $100,000,000 is being spent by states, cities, towns and counties. Now then if we don't accept this loan with the federal money and the P. W. A. let-ted, Lawrence County, Pennsylvania construction of a concrete viaduct over the Neshamock Creek, with a loan and grant of $250,000, to be spent in New Castle this summer, what is the matter with the heads of New Castle? If we turn down a project like this, we should hang our heads in shame.

I don't believe the people of New Castle understand this or they would not kick. We are certainly going backwards when we turn down a chance like this. We have the money offered to us and refuse it so some other town can have it, and then we pay for it in taxes. Let's allow it to go through and put people to work that are anxious to earn an honest living, instead of being handed food without work. Wake up New Castle and Lawrence County.

I hope and pray that our president will be able to provide work, but if we refuse to help, it is our own fault if we continue to have thousands of unemployed. Now it is up to you.

Prepare To Launch Educational Work At Trout Run Camp

Foresters Will Inaugurate Studies Under Guidance Of New Instructor

By RICHARD HOUCK
(Special To The News)

CAMP LOWELL THOMAS, C. C.
C. TROUT RUN, Pa., April 16—A strange car drove into camp the other day and a strange face appeared in the headquarters building.
It proved to be H. H. Herr who was instructed to report to camp as an educational advisor. Another link thereby added to the educational system being worked out in the Civillian Conservation Corps. Mr. Herr will serve two camps in the capacity of educational advisor. The other camp is located at Masten, Pa. approximately thirty miles from this station.

The object of teaching subjects in the C. C. C. is not to develop a highly trained student in one subject, but rather to develop in each man his powers of self-expression, self-entertainment and self culture;
to develop as far as practicable an understanding of the prevailing social and economic conditions. To the end that each man may co-operate intelligently in improving these conditions; and by such vocational training as is feasible, particularly by vocational counseling and adjustment of activities, to assist each man better to meet his employment problems when he leaves camp. To the end Mr. Herr, with the help of our able and industrious enrollees,
Alton Sprout, will vent his endeavors.
At present there are no designated subjects to be taught. The educational plan is so constructed that it will meet the requirements of the several camps. Should the members express a desire for having courses in civil government the same will be the undertaken. If the company as a whole can be benefited by the teaching of certain subjects, they will be provided. Thus the arrival of our Educational Advisor provides another department which will enhance the benefits of our back-wood life.

When 50 "Old Timers" leave in June there will be several vacancies left in camp which must be filled. The War department, having left nothing undone, has allowed an increase of nine members in the camp overhead to be used as adjustments to the mess stewards, cooks, clerks and storekeeper. Ralph Brooks, who is well known in sports circles in New Castle is at the present acting as mess steward and training William Callahan from Republic, Pa., for that duty. James Kling and Joe Edmunds from the Scranton district have been serving commendably as first cooks and have undertaken the task of teaching six student cooks the "Salt and Pepper of Things." The remaining two under studies are: one company clerk, Anthony Renda and one store keeper, Eugene Stafford. It is rightfully assumed that by the time June 30th rolls around, camp operation will be running smoothly under the revised personnel.

Hospitals Are In Need Of Repair

PITTSBURGH, April 17.—Re-criticized conditions in municipal hospitals were before council today after Mayor McNair's advisory com-

Plans of former years were outlined to eliminate "deplorable" con-council spent $2,500,000 on improve-

"A fire, an earthquake and $5-

WARNING to EXPECTANT MOTHERS

If you have ever been a patient in any hospital, you are probably familiar with the advantages of a liquid laxative.

Doctors know the value of the laxative whose dose can be measured, and whose action can be thus regulated to suit your individual need.

The public, too, is fast returning to the use of liquid laxatives. People have now learned that a properly prepared liquid laxative brings a perfect movement without discomfort at the time, or after. Dr.
Caldwell's long experience with mothers and babies, and his remarkable record of nearly three thousand births without the loss of one mother or child, should give anybody complete confidence in any prescription which he wrote!

But most important of all, a gentle liquid laxative does not cause bowel strain to the most delicate system, and this is of the utmost importance to expectant mothers and to every child.

Expectant mothers are urged to try gentle regulation of bowels with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a delightful tasting laxative of delightful action, made of fresh herbs, pure pepsin and active senna.
Not a single mineral drug; nothing to cause strain, or irritate the kidneys.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is an approved preparation and kept ready for use by all druggists.

WRITES ABOUT VIADUCT

Editor the News:
In answer to the item in the News on April 7, in which Dick Cook asked, "Why we don't put this project up to the people and let them vote on it?" Why mess your heart, this viaduct has been talked about for fifty years. Passed one grand jury because we moved the viaduct's location, which was about one hundred feet, to make it safer and better, then they had to object to the best project in the city. What the people in New Castle and Lawrence County need is a vision. The Bible says "without a vision we perish."

There has always been a kick that we did not have the money. Now we have a gift of fifty-eight thousand dollars to be used for this viaduct and then a loan for the rest of the money, with a small interest, and twenty years to pay it back. There are those who wouldn't want this of course, for they don't believe in the Progress of New Castle, or Lawrence County. They wouldn't want it. I am a heavy tax payer and believe in providing for the unemployed, and God knows there are thousands of men out of work. Now then, it means nearly two hundred thousand dollars turned loose in New Castle and Lawrence County, and a year or two's work. Now let's get the vision, and cut out all selfishness and go to work.

Every one knows that for the last twenty-five years it has been the machine age. All one has to do is press a button and the whole works starts. This has thrown thousands of men out of work. So now let's help build up New Castle. I am willing to pay my share of taxes and let us

New Ruling Makes Labels Accurate

To protect the buying public, the United States Food and Drug Administration has advised that every package of cereal labeled "Bran," state on the label exactly what it contains.

Before this ruling, even part-bran products were sometimes mistakenly referred to as "Bran." It was not easy for the purchaser to distinguish between a cereal that was entirely bran, or all bran with flavoring, and another that was mostly wheat.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is labeled "ALL-BRAN Deliciously Flavored with Malt, Sugar and Salt," a statement which describes the product fairly and honestly.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has won millions of friends because it corrects most types of common constipation safely and pleasantly. It furnishes generous "bulk"—needed to promote normal elimination.

However, ALL-BRAN is not a "cure-all." Certain types of intestinal disorders should be treated only on a physician's advice.

When you buy a bran cereal, for the relief of constipation, read the wording on the package. The facts are there! Make sure by asking for Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. It furnishes "bulk" in a form for satisfactory results.

At all grocers. In the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

'Sealing' Of Mines Resumed Under RWD

Work of "sealing" abandoned coal mines along the Slippery Rock creek, halted when the CWA first curtailed its activities, was to have been started today in the Slippery Rock vicinity under the RWD, in a letter to Alderman O. H. F. Green from L. G. Hines, Slippery Rock spokesman. The letter said the RWD administrator of Butler county approved the work.

The work was started by sportsmen of the district in the hope that pollution of the stream might be ended.

Some time ago approximately $75 was contributed by local sportsmen to help finance the work.

WARNING to EXPECTANT MOTHERS

If you have ever been a patient in any hospital, you are probably familiar with the advantages of a liquid laxative.

Doctors know the value of the laxative whose dose can be measured, and whose action can be thus regulated to suit your individual need.

The public, too, is fast returning to the use of liquid laxatives. People have now learned that a properly prepared liquid laxative brings a perfect movement without discomfort at the time, or after. Dr. Caldwell's long experience with mothers and babies, and his remarkable record of nearly three thousand births without the loss of one mother or child, should give anybody complete confidence in any prescription which he wrote!

But most important of all, a gentle liquid laxative does not cause bowel strain to the most delicate system, and this is of the utmost importance to expectant mothers and to every child.

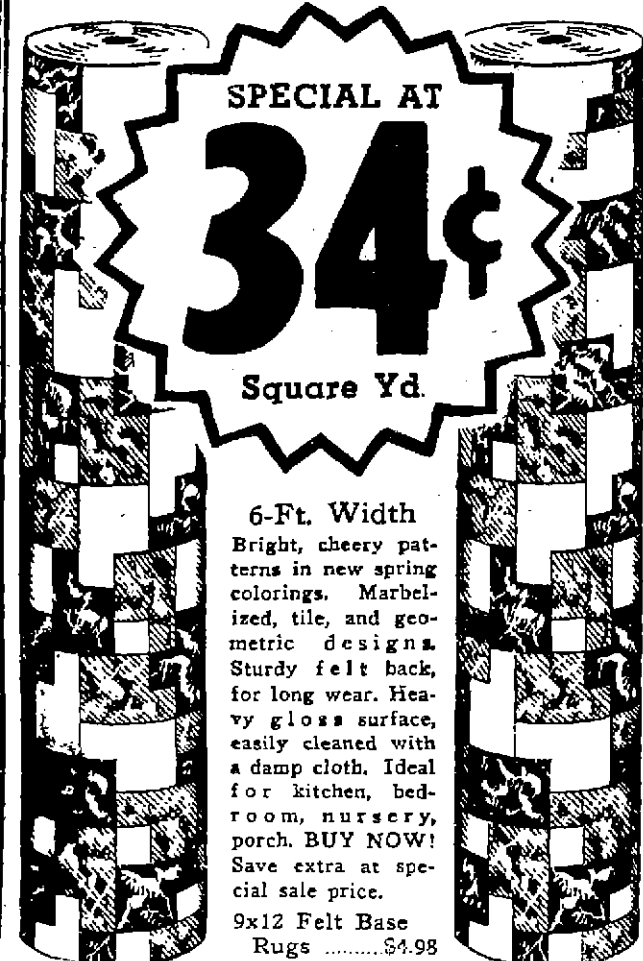

Expectant mothers are urged to try gentle regulation of bowels with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a delightful tasting laxative of delightful action, made of fresh herbs, pure pepsin and active senna. Not a single mineral drug; nothing to cause strain, or irritate the kidneys.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is an approved preparation and kept ready for use by all druggists.

WRITES ABOUT VIADUCT

In answer to the item in The News on April 7, in which Dick Cook asked, "Why we don't put this project up to the people and let them vote on it?" Why bless your heart, this viaduct has been talked about for fifty years. Passed one grand jury because we moved the viaduct's location, which was about one hundred feet, to make it safer and better, then they had to object to the best project in the city. What the people in New Castle and Lawrence County need is a vision. The Bible says "without a vision we perish."

There has always been a kick that we did not have the money. Now we have a gift of fifty-eight thousand dollars to be used for this viaduct and then a loan for the rest of the money, with a small interest, and twenty years to pay it back. There are those who wouldn't want this of course, for they don't believe in the Progress of New Castle, or Lawrence County. They wouldn't want it. I am a heavy tax payer and believe in providing for the unemployed, and God knows there are thousands of men out of work. Now that it means nearly two hundred thousand dollars turned loose in New Castle and Lawrence County, and a year or two's work. Now let's get the vision, and cut out all selfishness and go to work.

Every one knows that for the last twenty-five years it has been the machine age. All one has to do is press a button and the whole works starts. This has thrown thousands of men out of work. So now let's help build up New Castle, I am willing to pay my share of taxes and let us work.

CONFUSION ENDED ON BRAN

New Ruling Makes Labels Accurate

To protect the buying public, the United States Food and Drug Administration has advised that every package of cereal labeled "Bran" state on the label exactly what it contains.

Before this ruling, even part-bran products were sometimes mistakenly referred to as "Bran." It was not easy for the purchaser to distinguish between a cereal that was entirely bran, or all bran with flavoring, and another that was mostly wheat.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is labeled "ALL-BRAN Deliciously Flavored with Malt, Sugar and Salt," a statement which describes the product fairly and honestly.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has won millions of friends because it corrects most types of common constipation safely and pleasantly. It furnishes generous "bulk"—needed to promote normal elimination.

However, ALL-BRAN is not a "cure-all." Certain types of intestinal disorders should be treated only on a physician's advice.

When you buy a bran cereal, for the relief of constipation, read the wording on the package. The facts are there! Make sure by asking for Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. It furnishes "bulk" in a form for satisfactory results.

At all grocers. In the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

not forget that we are going to have higher taxes, whether the City of New Castle progresses or not. If we don't make work for the unemployed, we will have to keep them anyway. So let's all get the vision. Put a high level viaduct 600 feet long from the East side to the North side of the city. It will link up six paved highways entering New Castle, thus relieving heavy downtown traffic congestion. It will also afford easy access to the Senior and Junior high schools, hospitals, parks, fairgrounds, consistory building, two large cemeteries, and many other places, built on the high level. Get busy, and help. Build this project that will be a monument to progress for New Castle, and Lawrence County. It will help us all. Roosevelt is trying and doing all he can to help us and with God's help he has made up this gift, which is meant for us to use, and go ahead.

Brother Grangers, and all city people that are opposed to construction of the Croton and North Hill viaduct, did you see in the April 12 issue of the New Castle News that the administration stated more than $100,000,000 is being spent by states, cities, towns and counties. Now then if we don't accept this loan with the federal money and the P. W. A. aid, Lawrence County, Pennsylvania construction of a concrete viaduct over the Neshannock Creek, with a loan and grant of $250,000 to be spent in New Castle this summer, what is the matter with the heads of New Castle? If we turn down a project like this, we should hang our heads in shame.

I don't believe the people of New Castle understand this or they would not kick. We are certainly going backwards when we turn down a chance like this. We have the money offered to us and refuse it so some other town can have it, and then we pay for it in taxes. Let's allow it to go through and put people to work that are anxious to earn an honest living, instead of being handed food without work. Wake up New Castle and Lawrence County.

I hope and pray that our president will be able to provide work, but if we refuse to help, it is our own fault if we continue to have thousands of unemployed. Now it is up to you.

Tax payer,

Prepare To Launch Educational Work At Trout Run Camp

Foresters Will Inaugurate Studies Under Guidance Of New Instructor

By RICHARD HOUCK
(Special To The News)

CAMP LOWELL THOMAS, C. C. C. TROUT RUN, Pa., April 16—A strange car drove into camp the other day and a strange face appeared in the headquarters building. It proved to be H. H. Herr who was instructed to report to this camp as educational advisor. Another link thereby added to the educational system being worked out in the Civilian Conservation Corps. Mr. Herr will serve two camps in the capacity of educational advisor. The other camp is located at Masten, Pa. approximately thirty miles from this station.

The object of teaching subjects in the C. C. C. is not to develop a highly trained student in one subject, but rather to develop in each man his powers of self-expression, self-entertainment and self culture; to develop as far as practicable an understanding of the prevailing social and economic conditions to the end that each man may co-operate intelligently in improving these conditions; and by such vocational training as is feasible, particularly by vocational counseling and adjustment of activities, to assist each man better to meet his employment problems when he leaves camp. To this end Mr. Herr, with the help of our able and industrious, enrolling, Alton Sprout, will vent his endeavors. At present there are no designated subjects to be taught. The educational plan is so constructed that it will meet the requirements of the several camps. Should the members express a desire for having a course in civil government the same will be the undertaken. If the company as a whole can be benefited by the teaching of certain subjects, they will be provided. Thus the arrival of our Educational Advisor provides another department which will enhance the benefits of our backwoods life.

When 50 "Old Timers" leave in June there will be several vacancies left in camp which must be filled. The War department, having left nothing undone, has allowed an increase of nine members in the camp overhead to be used as under-studies to the mess stewards, cooks, clerks, and storekeeper. Ralph Brooks, who is well known in sports circles in New Castle, is at the present acting as mess steward and training William Callahan from Republic, Pa., for that duty. James King and Joe Edmunds from the Scranton district have been serving commendably as first cooks and have undertaken the task of teaching six student cooks the "Salt and Pepper of Things." The remaining two under studies are: one company clerk, Anthony Renda, and one store keeper, Eugene Stafford. It is rightfully assumed that by the time June 30th rolls around, camp operation will be running smoothly under the revised personnel.

Life is not merely to live, but to live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well, look well. What a glorious condition to attain, and yet how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning inside bath. Folks who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when they arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the water and phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatism; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store which will cost very little, but is sufficient to make any one a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

Rev. Stoddard told the clubmen of his contacts with Pittsburgh's criminal courts and his contacts with "youngsters" caught in the law's toils.
He denounced "slum sections" out of which men come "to live like rats because they've been raised like rats." He said a certain Pittsburgh slum section was condemned in 1907 but it wasn't until last week that the houses of filth were removed.
War he termed "wholesale murder," and in this respect he said we need to think more—to think and not be swept off our feet by the propaganda of firms which exist merely to manufacture ammunition for wars. He said the cry that the World war was a war to end war was "a lot of hooey."

AROUND CITY HALL

Police chronology for 24 hours ending at 3:30 p. m. April 16: ten arrests on charges as follows: violation of parking laws 2, drunkenness and disorderly conduct 4, suspicion 2, drunkenness 2.

Thomas Gardner, from here, there and everywhere, has been in this city nine days and has spent approximately six nights in the city jail. However, he isn't here today, having been told to shake the dust of the city from his brogans yesterday. He faced Mayor Mayne yesterday in police court on a charge of suspicion. He had been intoxicated and removed a red lantern from a railroad crossing gate. Police had to chase him before he was caught. He said he had left his Philadelphia home three years ago. When his record of arrests in different cities was shown he pleaded to be allowed to leave the city, and glad to get rid of him, Mayor Mayne took his word he would depart within 24 hours.

Half a dozen lots in different sections of the city are to be sold to the best bidders within the near future, bids having been opened yesterday when council met. The city obtained title to the lots sometime ago, having bought them in at tax sale. Some of the lots to which the city has title were redeemed by former owners and according to the solicitor, Robert White, the advertised sale proved profitable.

A policeman's life is not a bed of roses. Not only do they have to face whatever is before them when they answer a call but sometimes find their enemies are not always humans. For instance, take the trip Ray Showalter made yesterday. He was in Grant street and a dog lodged his teeth in his left leg. And then some time ago Patrolman Harry Flanner answered a call in North Mercer street, slipped on an icy walk, fell and is not yet fully recovered from the fall. They patrol and cruise to all sections and in arguments sometimes have their uniforms torn by persons who resist arrest. Carl Wallace froze his ears while directing traffic and one of the Richards sustained a couple of broken ribs in quelling a dance hall disturbance.

Joe Alexander, purchasing agent, has been authorized by city council to purchase a car load of cement at the best price obtainable, the price not to exceed $500. The money will come from the $17,000 appropriated for CWA materials. This makes several car loads of cement that have been used about the city during the past several months.

When the guard wall along Croton avenue is completed it will be one of the nicest appearing stone walls that can be seen anywhere. Especially cut stone is used and the decorative style is very pleasing to the eye. If any of the tourists who passed through Croton avenue last summer pass through the avenue again this summer they will see quite a change. The first impression in any case is the lasting impression, hence the desire to make the entrance to the city as nice as possible.

There is one practice that should be stopped and no steps should be allowed to remain that would prevent the practice being curbed. Railroad attaches have complained to the city that some persons are dumping garbage over the hill on P. R. R. property at the West Side station. Persons who visit New Castle will probably wonder why the rubbish tippers can get away with stunts like this. It is probable railroad police will take a hand in the matter and lodge some of the persons before an alderman.

REPLACING LINE
On Monday morning employees of the Manufacturers Light and Heat company started replacing a gas line from Big Run bridge to Division street on Moravia street.
The project will require about four weeks, weather permitting. Work of installing a new gas line along the Youngstown road, is progressing nicely according to F. W. Burdette.

About the only way to get big returns on a small investment now is to buy wedding invitations.

Thousands of Girls
menaced by COSMETIC SKIN adopt
Hollywood's Beauty Method

You can use all the Rouge and Powder you wish, yet guard against ugly COSMETIC SKIN this modern way...

"CAN my pores be growing large? And horrors! Is that a blackhead?" Suddenly some unhappy girl discovers her skin is growing coarse, unlovely—she is being robbed of beauty! She may not realize it, but she has COSMETIC SKIN—a modern complexion trouble easy to guard against.

Cosmetics Harmless
if removed this way
Cosmetics need not harm even delicate skin unless they are allowed to choke the pores. Many women who think they are removing cosmetics thoroughly are leaving bits of stale make-up in the pores day after day. When this happens, the pores gradually become clogged, distended. They cannot function normally and soon the warning signals of cosmetic skin appear.

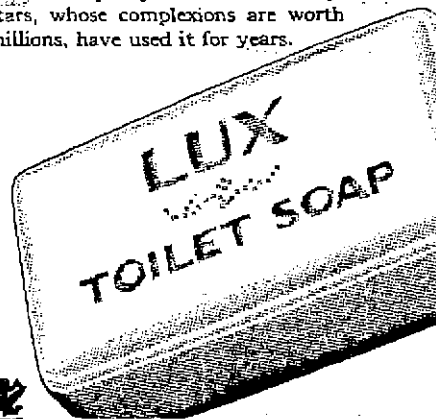

Don't run this risk. You needn't. Lux Toilet Soap is made to remove cosmetics thoroughly. Its rich, ACTIVE lather sinks deeply into the pores, carries swiftly away every vestige of dust, grease, stale cosmetics.

Before you apply fresh make-up during the day and ALWAYS before you go to bed at night, remove stale make-up thoroughly the modern Lux Toilet Soap way.

This simple care protects the skin—gives a true beauty treatment every time you use it.

Precious elements in this soap

Remember, Lux Toilet Soap contains precious elements Nature herself puts in skin to keep it youthful. The Hollywood stars, whose complexions are worth millions, have used it for years.

Forty-six instruments of all kinds were recorded at the office of Registrar and Recorder William R. Hanna during the past week, as compared with 42 during the previous week. There were thirty-five compared with twenty-five the previous week. Nine mortgages totaled $55,740.99 as against 5, totaling $20,151.93 the previous week. The big increase was due to a $40,000 mortgage given on an Ellwood City steel plant to a mortgage corporation. The other mortgages were as follows: three to individuals, totaling $6,150; three to Building and Loans, $3,350 and two to the Home Owners Loan Corporation, totaling $7,240.99. Included in the list of deeds were those given for properties recently sold at sheriff's sale.

The voting place in the fifth precinct of the second ward has been removed from the J. W. Reed property to Frank Runkle's garage on Leasure Avenue.

A representative of the United States court at Pittsburgh was at the county commissioners office yesterday, checking up on the persons who have been summoned as jurors to the U. S. court. The check up was merely for the purpose of ascertaining who the persons were, their business, and business connections, if any. The information was presumably for the use of the court in determining the eligibility of jurors to sit on the various cases.

Notes of testimony were filed yesterday in the case of the commonwealth against James Oscar McCormick who was convicted of involuntary manslaughter in connection with an automobile accident in which Leone Cwynar was killed. An application for a new trial has been made by McCormick, and it was necessary to have the notes of testimony written out before the application for a new trial is argued. The accident happened on Atlantic avenue, when the McCormick car is alleged to have struck the girl.

Judge James A. Chambers handed down an opinion today in a rather unusual case, in that there does not appear to be any supreme court decision in a similar case in Pennsylvania. The case was submitted on 28th James L. Maxwell owned two tracts of land, one in the third and one in the fourth ward, against which the Lawrence Savings and Trust Company entered three judgments. In each the John B. Thorson Company, John B. Thorson, and J. Maxwell were defendants. On the property in the fourth ward, which was on John street, there was a mortgage of $2500 to William J. Sweeney, but which had been assigned to David John. There was also a second mortgage of $1700 held by Elmer A. Gallagher. The property in the third ward was also encumbered. J. L. Maxwell was adjudicated a bankrupt, and on June 27th, 1928 Clarence A. Patterson who had been appointed trustee, presented a petition to the referee in bankruptcy for a disclaimer as to the Maxwell properties, showing that by reason of valid liens, there was no equity for creditors. The referee granted the disclaimer. On April 2nd, 1929, James L. Maxwell decided the fourth ward property to Elmer C. Gallagher, holder of the second mortgage. On October 1, '31 Elmer Gallagher conveyed it to David John, holder of the first mortgage. Maxwell also conveyed the third ward property to Helen Warnock, who on the same date conveyed it back to Emma Perry Maxwell, wife of James L. Maxwell. On April 27th, 1933 the Lawrence Savings and Trust Company issued a decree to continue liens of the said three judgments, with notice to David John and Emma Perry Maxwell, terre tenants. The trust company had notice of the proceedings in bankruptcy and made the proper filing of judgment against the estate of James Maxwell.

Upon these facts the court was asked to determine whether the revived judgments could be construed as liens against the lands of David John and Emma Perry Maxwell. After going into a discussion of the following opinion: Judgment is entered on the scire facias in favor of the Lawrence Savings and Trust Company plaintiff, against David John and Emma Perry Maxwell, defendants for the sum in the precise filed of said scire facias, our judgment, said judgment to be judgment de teris only, the prothonotary to liquidate and enter same. The de teris means that it can be entered only against the land.

At noon a delicious dinner was served. Several places of interest were visited after dinner. The Lobo Wolf farm and Cooks Forest were among the spots visited by the gathering. Heaney Appointed Trustee In Estate Of E. J. O'Brien on December 22nd, 1932. Under a will left by Mr. O'Brien the Safe Deposit and Trust Company was appointed trustee of the estate which was left in trust for Mrs. Margaret Heaney. The Union Trust Company declined to accept the trust. The estate according to the petition, consists principally of real estate practically all of which is subject to mortgages, some of them so large that there does not appear to be any equity.

Rotarians Hear Bellevue Pastor

Rev. Harold Stoddard, Baptist Clergyman There, Speaks Monday

"CUCKOO'S VIEWS" TOPIC OF ADDRESS

Declaring that our "Crisis in Character" is far greater today than our economic, political and other crises, the Rev. Harold Stoddard, pastor of the First Baptist church of Bellevue, and an active Pittsburgh social worker, brought to the New Castle Rotary club a common sense survey of life's problems in his luncheon address Monday on "A Cuckoo's View of Life."

Rev. Stoddard spoke at The Castleton following the club's regular luncheon.

"What can we do to uplift men and inspire men to a higher level than which we're now on—to inspire them to raise themselves out of the mess we're in?" asked the minister. He admitted that we'd never change the structure of our social fabric unless we inculcate within men the ideals that make men good. He termed those ideals "age-old ideals" that have made men good men in the past.

Rev. Stoddard told the clubmen of his contacts with Pittsburgh's criminal courts and his contacts with "youngsters" caught in the law's toils.

He denounced "slum sections" out of which men come "to live like rats because they've been raised like rats." He said a certain Pittsburgh slum section was condemned in 1907 but it wasn't until last week that the houses of filth were removed.

War he termed "wholesale murder," and in this respect he said we need to think more—to think and not be swept off our feet by the propaganda of firms which exist merely to manufacture ammunition for wars. He said the cry that the World war was a war to end war was "a lot of hooey."

Present as guests Monday were O. E. Decker, Youngstown; L. P. Page, Pittsburgh; Rev. J. P. Campbell, Sr., St. Clairsville, O., and M. F. Hard, Oil City.

For instance, take the trip Ray Showalter made yesterday. He was in Grant street and a dog lodged his teeth in his left leg. And then some time ago Patrolman Harry Plimmer answered a call in North Mercer street, slipped on an icy walk, fell and is not yet fully recovered from the fall. They patrol and cruise to all sections and in arguments sometimes have their uniforms torn by persons who resist arrest. Carl Wallace froze his ears while directing traffic and one of the Richards sustained a couple of broken ribs in quelling a dance hall disturbance.

Joe Alexander, purchasing agent, has been authorized by city council to purchase a car load of cement at the best price obtainable, the price not to exceed $500. The money will come from the $17,000 appropriated for CWA materials. This makes several car loads of cement that have been used about the city during the past several months.

When the guard wall along Croton avenue hill is completed it will be one of the nicest appearing stone walls that can be seen anywhere. Especially out stone is used and the decorative style is very pleasing to the eye. If any of the tourists who passed through Croton avenue last summer pass through the avenue again this summer they will see quite a change. The first impression in many cases is the lasting impression, hence the desire to make the entrance to the city as nice as possible.

There is one practice that should be stopped and no steps should be allowed to remain that would prevent the practice being curbed. Railroad attaches have complained to the city that some persons are dumping garbage over the hill on P. R. R. property at the West Side station. Persons who visit New Castle will probably wonder why the rubbish tossers can get away with stunts like this. It is probable railroad police will take a hand in the matter and lodge some of the persons before an alderman.

REPLACING LINE

On Monday morning employees of the Manufacturers Light and Heat company started replacing a gas line street, on Moravia street.

The project will require about four weeks, weather permitting. Work of installing a new gas line along the Youngstown road, is progressing nicely according to F. W. Burdette.

About the only way to get big returns on a small investment now is to buy wedding invitations.

Thousands of Girls
Hollywood's Beauty Method

You can use all the Rouge and Powder you wish, yet guard against ugly COSMETIC SKIN this modern way...

"CAN my pores be growing large? And horrors! Is that a blackhead!" Suddenly some unhappy girl discovers her skin is growing coarse, unlovely—she is being robbed of beauty!

She may not realize it, but she has COSMETIC SKIN—a modern complexion trouble easy to guard against.

Cosmetics Harmless if removed this way

Cosmetics need not harm even delicate skin unless they are allowed to choke the pores. Many women who think they are removing cosmetics thoroughly are leaving bits of stale make-up in the pores day after day. When this happens, the pores gradually become clogged, distended. They cannot function normally and soon the warning signals of cosmetic skin appear.

Don't run this risk. You needn't. Lux Toilet Soap is made to remove cosmetics thoroughly. Its rich, ACTIVE lather sinks deeply into the pores, carries swiftly away every vestige of dust, grease, stale cosmetics. Before you apply fresh make-up during the day and ALWAYS before you go to bed at night, remove stale make-up thoroughly the modern Lux Toilet Soap way.

This simple care protects the skin—gives a true beauty treatment every time you use it.

Precious elements in this soap Remember, Lux Toilet Soap contains precious elements Nature herself puts in skin to keep it youthful. The Hollywood stars, whose complexions are worth millions, have used it for years.

"Of course I use cosmetics, but thanks to LUX Toilet Soap I never worry about Cosmetic Skin"—says GINGER ROGERS RKO Radio Star

On Court House Hill

Forty-six instruments of all kinds were recorded at the office of Registrar and Recorder, William E. Hatria during the past week, as compared with 42 during the previous week. There were thirty deeds compared with twenty-five the previous week. Nine mortgages totaled $55,740.99, against 9 totaling $20,151.93 the previous week. The big increase was due to a $40,000 mortgage given on an Ellwood City steel plant to a mortgage corporation. The other mortgages were as follows: three to individuals, totaling $5,150; three to Building and Loans, $3,350 and two to the Home Owners Loan Corporation, totaling $7,240.99. Included in the list of deeds were those given for properties recently sold at sheriff sale.

The voting place in the fifth precinct of the second ward has been removed from the J. W. Reed property to Frank Runkle's garage on Leasure Avenue.

A representative of the United States court at Pittsburgh was at the county commissioners office yesterday, checking up on the persons who have been summoned as jurors to the U. S. court. The check up was merely for the purpose of ascertaining who the persons were, their business, and business connections, if any. The information was presumably for the use of the court in determining the eligibility of jurors to sit on the various cases.

Notes of testimony were filed yesterday in the case of the commonwealth against James Oscar McCormick who was convicted of involuntary manslaughter in connection with an automobile accident in which Leone Cwynar was killed. An application for a new trial has been made by McCormick, and it was necessary to have the notes of testimony written out before the application for a new trial is argued. The accident happened on Atlantic avenue, when the McCormick car is alleged to have struck the girl.

Judge James A. Chambers handed down an opinion today in a rather unusual case, in that there does not appear to be any supreme court decision in a similar case in Pennsylvania. The case was submitted on briefs and showed that prior to April 28th, James L. Maxwell owned two tracts of land, one in the third and one in the fourth ward, against which the Lawrence Savings and Trust Company entered three judgments. In each The John B. Thorson Company, John B. Thorson, and J. Maxwell were defendants.

On the property in the fourth ward, which was on John street, there was a mortgage of $2500 to William J. Sweeney, but which had been assigned to David John. There was also a second mortgage of $1700 held by Elmer A. Gallagher. The property in the third ward was also encumbered. J. L. Maxwell was adjudicated a bankrupt, and on June 27th, 1928 Clarence A. Patterson had been appointed trustee, presented a petition to the referee in bankruptcy for a disclaimer as to the two Maxwell properties, showing that by reason of valid liens, there was no equity for creditors. The referee granted the disclaimer.

to David John, holder of the first mortgage. Maxwell also conveyed the third ward property to Helen Warnock, who on the same date conveyed it back to Emma Perry Maxwell, wife of James L. Maxwell. On April 27th, 1933 the Lawrence Savings and Trust Company issued a scire to continue liens of the said three judgments, with notice to David John and Emma Perry Maxwell, terre tenants. The trust company had notice of the proceedings in bankruptcy and made the revival of judgment against the estate of James Maxwell.

Upon these facts the court was asked to determine whether the revived judgments could be construed as liens against the lands of David John and Emma Perry Maxwell. After going into a discussion of the case Judge Chambers gave the following opinion: Judgment is entered on the scire facias in favor of the Lawrence Savings and Trust Company plaintiff, against David John and Emma Perry Maxwell, defendants for the sum in the precise filed for said scire facias, sur judgment, said judgment to be judgment, de terris only, the prethonatory to liquidate and enter same. The de terris means that it can be entered only against the land.

Heaney Appointed Trustee In Estate Of E. J. O'Brien

Upon a petition to court Monday by Mrs. Margaret Heaney, Judge R. L. Hildebrand appointed Joseph Heaney trustee in the estate of the late Edward J. O'Brien, who died on December 22nd, 1932. Under a will left by Mr. O'Brien the Safe Deposit and Trust Company now the Union Trust Company, was appointed trustee of the estate which was left in trust for Mrs. Margaret Heaney. The Union Trust Company declined to accept the trust. The estate according to the petition, consists principally of real estate practically all of which is subject to mortgages, some of them so large that there does not appear to be any equity.

Trotsky Must Leave France

Exiled Russian Bolshevik
Asked to Leave France
Within Few Days

STORM OF PROTEST GREET'S DISCOVERY

(Copyright, 1934, By International News Service)

PARIS, Apr. 17.—Leon Trotsky, exiled Russian Bolshevik leader discovered Sunday living secretly within a few miles of Paris, must leave France within a few days, International News Service learned today from an authoritative source.

Trotsky must find refuge in another country, he will be told, and will be given a few days in which to find a government which will have him.

The discovery of Trotsky's residence in the suburb of Barbizon, where he declared he was plotting a "fourth international" to extinguish capitalism by revolt, gave rise to a storm of protest throughout the country, with the Paris press clamoring that he be driven from France "like a dog."

Change Minds

Although indicating yesterday that Trotsky could live in the department of Seine-et-Marne as long as he wished, the French foreign office changed its mind today in the face of the public furor which followed his surprise discovery. The ministerial council met in a lengthy session today to consider the case. Pending his expulsion, Trotsky will not be permitted to remain in the vicinity of Paris, world headquarters of White Russians, who according to Trotsky himself, have sworn to slay him in vengeance for his part in the overthrow of the czarist regime in Russia.

When Trotsky was given permission to live in Corsica, under French rule, after leaving his exile home on the island of Prinkipo, near Istanbul, Turkey, he promised not to engage in political activity.

His failure to keep this promise is the formal reason the French government will give in ordering him to leave France, and he now will not even be allowed to live in any French territory.

Seeks New Home

The government made its decision after hearing the report of Minister of the Interior Albert Sarraut regarding Trotsky's activities. He had been given formal permission to reside in the Seine-et-Marne department by the interior ministry under a previous administration, although virtually all of France was unaware of it.

As far as is known Russia is the only country in which Trotsky could find refuge, but to go there he would have to submit to the discipline of the communist party and thereby renounce his heretical views which engendered his present feud with Dictator Josef Stalin.

There was some possibility he might obtain a refuge in Spain or Portugal.

Opposition To Social Survey

Representatives Of Survey
Are Meeting With Considerable Resistance

Surveyors who are engaged in the Social Survey of the county, listing the occupations, wages, and various other points of information, concerning the people of the county are meeting with considerable resistance, according to Albert Davis, in charge of the survey.

"We have found many people resistant to tell us their average income," said Mr. Davis, "on the ground that they didn't want the matter made public. The information we get on the survey will be held in strictest confidence and any surveyor divulging any of it will be discharged. The purpose of the survey is to give the government complete check on its citizenry and unless we get all the information asked for, our task will not be done properly."

"I sincerely trust that Lawrence County men and women will cooperate fully in this matter and aid us in turning in a proper survey for Lawrence County."

TO RENOVATE FIELD

Negotiations to have the baseball field of New Wilmington renovated having failed, it is again apparent that much work must be done on the diamond before any ball can be played this summer. Committees have been appointed through the medium of the New Wilmington A. A. and with the advent of seasonable weather, work will be started on the diamond. Much propaganda ensued as to the use of the CWA money in the local borough, many citizens feeling that the renovation of the baseball field was a worthy project. Authorities disagreed, however, and it is imperative that all who wish to play ball this summer should get in touch with "Red" Anderson and help with the work.

Singer Is Given Fine Reception In South Wales

Miss Ceinwen Johns Arrives Home After Visit In The United States

(By WILLIAM A. JOHNS)
Brython

Word has come to friends in New Castle that the singer, Miss Ceinwen Johns, has landed safely back home, Rhondda Valley, South Wales, and that she had a grand reception by friends and relatives. They were very pleased to welcome her home again after her several years of successful singing in the United States. She is taking a few weeks vacation before starting her concert singing in England and Wales.

The Welsh of New Castle are in sympathy with Mr. and Mrs. David T. Evans, Garfield avenue, in the sad news they received last week of the death of the only sister they had, Mrs. Thomas, of Llansamlet, South Wales.

Members of the First Congregational church and the pastor, Rev. E. T. Williams, are very busy these days preparing for the 40th anniversary of the church which will be held Sunday, April 29, when all day services will be conducted and out-of-town ministers with the pastor will take part. All the former members who have moved away, with the charter members, are invited to attend. The singing will be under the directorship of Griffith Thomas, Park avenue, with Mrs. John M. Evans at the organ.

Members of the Star of Wales Lodge No. 60 True Iovites of America will meet next Saturday evening, April 21, at 7:30 o'clock, at the Emmanuel Baptist church. Griffith Phillips will open the meeting.

A sacred concert was held at the Emmanuel Baptist church last Sunday. Scripture was read by Brinley Hughes; prayer by Mrs. T. L. Jones; solos were given by Miss Ruth Hughes, Miss Eva Jones, Miss Ellice Jones, Mrs. William P. Vogan and Mrs. R. T. Morris. Speeches were made by Brinley Hughes, William R. Thomas and Griffith Phillips. Miss Ann Mae Jones was pianist.

Learn BEFORE YOU BUY

THIS ADVICE is not entirely unselfish. We have discovered that most folks who take the time to dig out the facts become Electrolux owners.

And it's not hard to see why. For, frankly, the New Air Cooled Electrolux has them all beaten on the things that really count in automatic refrigeration.

It costs less to run. Just figure what that means in money saved every day . . . every month . . . every year!

Electrolux has no moving parts to wear and need costly repairing. And that's another neat little saving!

It's permanently silent, too. That's not a financial saving, but it's something to consider pleasantly. So is this—Electrolux is backed and given prompt willing service by your own gas company.

These are big things. But Electrolux has not forgotten the "little" conveniences that make every woman's life more enjoyable.

If you're even mildly interested in automatic refrigeration, please come in. See the other refrigerators, too. And the more you know, the nearer you are to owning an Electrolux—the modern gas refrigerator.

Much propaganda ensued as to the use of the CWA money in the local borough, many citizens feeling that the renovation of the baseball field was a worthy project. Word has come to friends in New Castle that the sweet singer, Miss Ceinwen Johns has landed safely back home, Rhondda Valley, South Wales, and that she had a grand reception by friends and relatives.

They were very pleased to welcome her home again after her several years of successful singing in the United States. She is taking a few weeks vacation before starting her concert singing in England and Wales.

The Welsh of New Castle are in sympathy with Mr. and Mrs. David T. Evans, Garfield avenue, in the sad news they received last week of the death of the only sister they had, Mrs. Thomas, of Llanhamlet, South Wales.

Members of the First Congregational church and the pastor, Rev. Rees T. Williams, are very busy these days preparing for the 40th anniversary of the church which will be held Sunday, April 29, when all day services will be conducted and out-of-town ministers with the pastor will take part. All the former members who have moved away, with the charter members, are invited to attend. The singing will be under the directorship of Griffith Thomas, Park avenue, with Mrs. John M. Evans at the organ.

Members of the Star of Wales Lodge No. 60 True Iovites of America will meet next Saturday evening, April 21, at 7:30 o'clock, at the Emmanuel Baptist church. Griffith Phillips will open the meeting.

A sacred concert was held at the Emmanuel Baptist church last Sunday. Scripture was read by Brinley Hughes; prayer by Mrs. T. L. Jones; solos were given by Miss Ruth Jones, Miss Eva Jones, Miss Elleer Jones, Mrs. William P. Vogan and Mrs. R. T. Morris. Speeches were made by Brinley Hughes, William R. McGinnis Honored On 80th Birthday

Bank Director For Years Was One of Pioneer Depositors Here

Honor to W. S. McGinnis, who for years was identified as a director of two of the city's leading banks and who, early in the community's life became one of the first depositors in what today are the First National Bank of Lawrence County and the Union Trust company, was paid by admiring friends here as he reached his 80th birthday.

He retired as a director of both banks at the close of 1933.

Mr. McGinnis, who began depositing with the old Billy Patterson bank which many townspeople can remember, was 80, on Saturday.

Neighbors of Mr. McGinnis in the Seventh ward joined uptown friends to pay him tribute, and birthday cards and floral tributes helped to make the event a merry one. The local banks with which he had been associated sent a representative and others came from Oregon, Ill., to see him.

Mr. McGinnis is enjoying reasonably good health.

THIS ADVICE is not entirely unselfish. We have discovered that most folks who take the time to dig out the facts become Electrolux owners.

And it's not hard to see why. For, frankly, the New Air Cooled Electrolux has them all beaten on the things that really count in automatic refrigeration.

It costs less to run. Just figure what that means in money saved every day... every month... every year!

Electrolux has no moving parts to wear and need costly re-pairing. And that's another neat little saving!

It's permanently silent, too. That's not a financial saving, but it's something to consider pleasantly. So is this—Electrolux is backed and given prompt willing service by your own gas company.

These are big things. But Electrolux has not forgotten the "little" conveniences that make every woman's life more enjoyable.

If you're even mildly interested in automatic refrigeration, please come in. See the other refrigerators, too. And the more

Trotsky Must Leave France

Exiled Russian Bolshevik
Asked To Leave France
Within Few Days

STORM OF PROTEST GREET'S DISCOVERY

By ARNO DOSCH-FLEUROT
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

PARIS, Apr. 17.—Leon Trotsky, exiled Russian Bolshevik leader discovered Sunday living secretly within a few miles of Paris, must leave France within a few days, International News Service learned today from an authoritative source.

Trotsky must find refuge in another country, he will be told, and will be given a few days in which to find a government which will have him.

The discovery of Trotsky's residence in the suburb of Barbizon, where he declared he was plotting a "fourth international" to extinguish capitalism by revolt, gave rise to a storm of protest throughout the country, with the Paris press clamoring that he be driven from France "like a dog."

Change Minds

Although indicating yesterday that Trotsky could live in the department of Seine-et-Marne as long as he wished, the French foreign office changed its mind today in the face of the public furore which followed his surprise discovery. The ministerial council met in a lengthy session today to consider the case. Pending his expulsion, Trotsky will not be permitted to remain in the vicinity of Paris, world headquarters of White Russians, who according to Trotsky himself, have sworn to slay him in vengeance for his part in the overthrow of the czarist regime in Russia.

When Trotsky was given permission to live in Corsica, under French rule, after leaving his exile home on the island of Prinkipo, near Istanbul, Turkey, he promised not to engage in political activity.

His failure to keep this promise is the formal reason the French government will give in ordering him to leave France, and he now will not even be allowed to live in any French territory.

Seeks New Home

The government made its decision after hearing the report of Minister of the Interior Albert Sarraut regarding Trotsky's activities. He had been given formal permission to reside in the Seine-et-Marne department by the interior ministry under a previous administration, although virtually all of France was unaware of it.

As far as is known Russia is the only country in which Trotsky could find refuge, but to go there he would have to submit to the discipline of the Communist party and thereby renounce his heretical views which engendered his present feud with Dictator Josef Stalin.

There was some possibility he might obtain a refuge in Spain or Portugal.

Willard Grange

At last week's meeting of Willard grange an interesting program was carried out.

Relieve Those ITCHY PIMPLES

Irritating pimples and ugly itching blotches are greatly benefited in one night when time-tested PETERSON'S OINTMENT is applied at bedtime. It's simple—inexpensive but amazingly effective. Get a 35c box of PETERSON'S from your druggist and just try it. If the angry redness doesn't diminish by morning, if skin doesn't feel better, look better, if you are not truly amazed—druggists will refund your money. Use PETERSON'S OINTMENT also for eczema eruptions, sore, itching toes, cracks between toes. Stop a itching torment in a few minutes. Try it.

Members of the Star of Wales Lodge No. 60 True Iovites of America will meet next Saturday evening, April 21, at 7:30 o'clock, at the Emmanuel Baptist church, Griffith Phillips will open the meeting.

A sacred concert was held at the Emmanuel Baptist church last Sunday. Scripture was read by Brinley Hughes; prayer by Mrs. T. L. Jones; solos were given by Miss Ruth Hughes, Miss Eva Jones, Miss Ellen Jones, Mrs. William P. Vogan and Mrs. R. T. Morris. Speeches were made by Brinley Hughes, William R. Neighbors of Mr. McGinnis in the Seventh ward joined uptown friends to pay him tribute, and birthday cards and floral tributes helped to make the event a merry one. The local banks with which he had been associated sent a representative and others came from Oregon, Ill., to see him.

Mr. McGinnis is enjoying reasonably good health.

Judge James A. Chambers is at Butler this week, assisting Judge John H. Wilson of that county in holding court. Civil actions are being heard.

Processing Tax Of No Benefit, Says McSparran

Milk Processing Tax Will Take Money From East
To Middle West

SAYS PUBLIC CAN'T BEAR IT

HARRISBURG, April 17.—This question of a processing tax for the consumer of dairy products for the benefit of Pennsylvania dairymen, is upon the minds of many of our people at this time. Secretary of Agriculture John A. McSparran, says in a statement issued here in which he describes the proposed processing tax on dairy products as being of "no substantial benefit to Pennsylvania dairy farmers."

"The State Department of Agriculture," he explained, "has made a study of this situation and our statisticians tell us that the maximum benefit payments that could come to Pennsylvania farmers under the A. A. Dairy program would be $7,125,000. It must be understood that that is a maximum amount, and if the dealers assess much of that processing tax against the producer, and it is very probable that they will carry a part of it, then the $7,125,000 would have to be reduced by what ever amount the dairyman would be required to pay. On the other hand, the estimated amount of processing tax on dairy products consumed in Pennsylvania would total the maximum rate of $18,000,000."

"It is very evident, therefore, that there can be no substantial benefit in the program to the dairy farmers of Pennsylvania. While on the other hand, a considerable amount of tax would fall upon the consuming public in Pennsylvania, which they are at this time ill prepared to assume. It is very evident also that the result of these processing taxes as they fall upon the consuming public of the East, instead of bringing a commensurate benefit to the farmer of the East, takes the money from our consuming public and pays it into the middle West and our farmers get out of it a very trifling, if any, benefit."

Norma Talmadge Will Not Comment On George Jessel

Everyone Expects Norma And
George To Get Married
Now That Norma Is Free

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, April 17.—The stage gag "as private as Grand Central Station" played a real life role today when Norma Talmadge, divorced and free to marry again, arrived in town.

Everyone expected George Jessel, song and dance man named as her new husband-to-be, to meet the famous screen star on her arrival. But he apparently remembered the joke and concluded the course of the terminal was too public a spot, so he sent his secretary, Sam Bennett, in his stead.

Miss Talmadge unreservedly placed herself in Bennett's hands. The screen star was divorced a few days ago from Joseph M. Schenck, motion picture producer, one of the friendliest marital break-ups in film annals. Schenck inferred he was making way for Jessel and wished his ex-wife and the comedian all happiness.

Miss Talmadge, however, would not discuss either her business affairs or her reported romance with Jessel.

"I have no plans," she said, "but I do have an appointment to see him."

Reverse Order For Attack In War Maneuvers

U. S. Naval Fleet Continues With War Games In Southern Waters

(International News Service)

ABOARD U. S. S. CHICAGO, WITH UNITED STATES FLEET, April 17.—After a mock battle of submarine and destroyer "attacks," the United States fleet, divided into two units, today reversed positions in a continuation of maneuvers as the giant armada continued its way down the west coast of Mexico en route to Atlantic waters.

"Brown" fleet destroyers yesterday swooped past "blue" fleet vessels simulating the firing of torpedoes at blue battleships and airplane carrier vessels.

Today the ships of the blue fleet were to launch similar attacks on brown fleet vessels.

Places Are Open In Troop F. Now

Five Recruits Can Be Added
Before May 1, Captain
Bintrim States

MAY APPLY AT ARMORY FRIDAY

Troop F., 103rd Cavalry, P. N. G., has places open for five recruits. Captain Harvey G. Bintrim stated today, and applicants desiring to enroll in the Troop may present themselves during the drill period in the Armory, Shenango Motors Building, on West Washington street, Friday evening.

No enlistment can be made between May 1 and September 1, and in the interim, the enlistment period of five men will expire. Members of the troop receive pay for attending drill, and also get extra pay during the encampment period for two weeks each summer.

Outdoor drill will be started on May 4, Captain Bintrim stated, although the troop members are already riding the mounts and keeping them exercised.

Plans are now being made for several overnight marches, mounted, by the troop during the next six weeks, which will get the men prepared for encampment duties.

Former Local Man Accepts Call To Bellevue Church

Rev. Roy E. Manne, Graduate
Of Local High School,
Given Advancement

(International News Service)
INDIANAPOLIS, April 17.—The probe of the mysterious murder here April 6 of Bert Callahan, 47-year-old wealthy bachelor, took a sensational turn today when Chief of Police Michael F. Morrissey ordered the roundup of a gang of blackmailers here whose members were alleged to have been operating in women's clothes to deceive their victims.

The chief's order was immediately linked with the report several days ago that a neighbor of Callahan had seen a man dressed as a woman loitering in the rear of the Callahan home several hours before he was slain.

An editorial in the Westfield Leader has this comment concerning Dr. Manne's ministry in Westfield: "Under the ministry of Dr. Manne the local Methodist church has become one of the strong churches of Methodism in the New York area. Not only is the Methodist church losing an able minister, but the young people of all denominations are losing a sympathetic and understanding friend, and the town itself is losing a fearless and public spirited citizen. Dr. Manne is going to one of Methodism's outstanding churches and we wish for him the greatest success."

Schools Closed At Zion City By Voliva's Orders

Famous Zionist Makes Good
Threat Made Prior To Recent Election

(International News Service)

ZION CITY, Ill., April 17.—Wilbur Glen Voliva's schools where they teach pupils that the world is flat as a pancake and not round like an apple, were closed today.

The closing order came after Voliva threatened to "crack down" on Zion unless his school board candidates were re-elected. In all, 1,300 pupils were told to take their books home and stay there for the rest of the school year.

Schools Closed

Voliva took a leading part in the campaign for De Pew's re-election and before election said that in the event of De Pew's defeat he would "crack the town wide open."

The notice of the school shutdown said:

President Goes Into Features Of McLeod Bill

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Apr. 17.—President Roosevelt today went fully into all phases of the pending McLeod bill for payment by the government to depositors of funds tied up in closed banks.

In a conference which included Rep. McLeod (R., of Michigan), sponsor of the bill, former Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer; RFC chairman Jesse Jones, C. B. Merriam of the RFC, and Chairman Leo Crowley of the FDIC, the president outlined his views regarding the legislation and heard the arguments of those who differed with him.

Police Are Seeking Lost Roll Of $559

City detectives are trying to find some trace of $559.50, Chase Jacobs, 5 North Front street, claims he missed early Sunday morning. He had been in a restaurant and took a taxi home. He was accompanied by a friend, McGilley, who paid the 50 cents out of a $5 bill and received $4.50 in change before he entered the machine. When he got out of the car he claims he missed the money. He had it in a pocketbook in a rear pocket. His friend preceded him from the car.

MAY ASK VOLUNTEERS
It is probable playgrounds will be "shaped up" soon according to city health information. Playgrounds at Vine street, McGilley avenue, Arthur McGill school, Geo. Washington junior high school, Ben Franklin junior high school and in Smithfield street. It is likely that volunteer supervisors will be sought to take charge of the children this summer.

Boys Jam Y For Newsies' Rally

Crowd Of 250 Carriers On Hand For Special Two-
Hour Frolic

RENTZ JOINS THEM
AS THEY CELEBRATE

If any seismograph recorded slight earth tremors last night you can blame over 250 New Castle Newsboys—home carriers and street salesboys—who forgot their school and delivery cares while they frolicked merrily at the Y. M. C. A. in the first "all Newsies' fun carnival" sponsored by The News.

From Fred L. Rentz, president and managing editor of the newspaper, down to the boy who covers the shortest route—and, by the way, hardly a carrier was missing—there were faces smiling that spread from ear to ear and sparkling eyes that radiated supreme content.

And there were reasons—many reasons—why the crowded second-floor banquet hall echoed merriment for two hours or more there wasn't a dull moment because Ralph S. Reed supervisor of the Fred L. Rentz Newsboys club, the newsies own organization, had seen to that. Reed was aided by others.

"Leap Frog," "School Days" and "My Wild Irish Rose" were never sung more vigorously by any group than it was by the husky-voiced "paper" boys under W. O. "Red" Williams' direction. Williams, his face all smiles, never found more pleasure in leading an audience of singers. Williams sang a solo for them. Bob Morgan was accompanist.

The singing began things—then came a competent magic performance by James Smith; a whirling of comic pantomime ably done by John P. Davis. Although the school men, an entertaining period of motion pictures reels on "Flex the Cat" and others of Slim Summerville and then—we couldn't forget it—the eats.

In between the chalk talk of Mr. Davis and the motion pictures the boys' commander, Mr. Rentz, was presented. He had come with Mrs. Rentz to enjoy the evening—and enjoy it they did.

"It's the first time," The News head told the group, "that I've seen you all together—you make an impressive appearance." He told them the main duties of a good carrier, recalling that "every customer appreciates the service of a good newsboy."

Mr. Rentz said that when he went to work with The News 52 years ago there were only a dozen newsboys serving. He told, briefly, the changes since then, changes in the carriers and in newspaper production.

Last of all, it was explained to the group that "many a prominent man today" once carried The News and Mr. Rentz asserted that "they're proud of it." In closing, he wished the gang luck.

Edward J. Ryan, circulation head of the paper, told the group that J. F. Rentz, general manager, wanted it made known that only an important trip south prevented him from joining them. Through Ryan he sent his best wishes.

Newsboys—and one girl—came from the city, Edenburg, East Brook, the Harbor, West Washington St. extension, Harlansburg, Seventh and Eleventh streets, and other points for the rally. The girl—one of about 11 who serve the paper—was 13 year old Ruth Martin, Florence avenue, who delivers nine papers every night. Ruth sat up front on a reserved chair.

After the program the boys lined up and were served pop and wieners by assistants. The News circulation department and Y men. The eat closed the rally.

Present during the evening were a number of men from The News.

DENVER BOY HONOURED
(International News Service)
DENVER—Dominic Lepore Jr., 12, son of a Denver business man, is probably the proudest boy in Denver. The Italian government, through its Consul here, Pietro Gerbore, recently presented him with a Divisa de Balilla uniform. The uniforms were awarded junior members of several prominent Italian-American families in awards for services performed by heads of the families.

Split and peekaboo sleeves are very fashionable, shown by all the Paris houses.

United States

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, April 17.—"The fourth internationale" devoted to world revolution which Leon Trotsky told French police he was organizing when they raided his villa near Paris Sunday is already beginning to be organized in America, it was revealed today.

The Trotsky followers here have banded together in what is known as "The Communist League of America." They have offices here just off Union Square, headquarters of Orthodox Communist activities, and they publish a weekly paper called "The Militant."

The organization is a left wing group compared with the regular Communists, that is they are more radical than those heretofore considered the extreme radicals in America. They are working for immediate world revolution.

Arne Swabeck, secretary of the organization, explained today that the difference between the Fourth Internationale now being organized

Processing Tax Of No Benefit, Says McSparran

Milk Processing Tax Will Take Money From East
To Middle West

SAYS PUBLIC CAN'T BEAR IT

HARRISBURG, April 17.—This question of a processing tax for the consumer of dairy products for the benefit of Pennsylvania dairymen, is upon the minds of many of our people at this time. Secretary of Agriculture John A. McSparran, says in a statement amount here in which he describes the proposed processing tax on dairy products as being of "no substantial benefit to Pennsylvania dairy farmers."

"The State Department of Agriculture," he explained "has made a study of this situation and our statisticians tell us that the maximum benefit payments that could come to Pennsylvania farmers under the A. A. Dairy program would be $7,125,000. It must be understood that this is a maximum amount, and if the dealers assess much of that processing tax against the producer, and it is very probable that they will carry a part of it, then the $7,125,000 would have to be reduced by whatever amount the dairyman would be required to pay. On the other hand, a statement amount here in which he describes the proposed processing tax on dairy products consumed in Pennsylvania would total the maximum rate of $18,000,000.

"It is very evident, therefore, that there can be no substantial benefit in the program to the dairy farmers of Pennsylvania. While on the other hand, a considerable amount of tax would fall upon the consuming public in Pennsylvania, which they are at this time ill prepared to assume.

"It is very evident also that the result of these processing taxes as they fall upon the consuming public of the East, instead of bringing a commensurate benefit to the farmer of the East, takes the money from our consuming public and pays it into the middle West and our farmers get out of it a very trifling, if any, benefit."

Norma Talmadge Will Not Comment On George Jessel

Everyone Expects Norma And
George To Get Married
Now That Norma Is Free

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, April 17.—The stage gag "as private as Grand Central Station" played a real life role today when Norma Talmadge, divorced and free to marry again, arrived in town.

Everyone expected George Jessel, song and dance man named as her new husband-to-be, to meet the famous screen star on her arrival. But he apparently remembered the joke and concluded the course of the terminal was too public a spot, so he sent his secretary, Sam Bennett, in his stead.

Miss Talmadge unreservedly placed herself in Bennett's hands.

The screen star was divorced a few days ago from Joseph M. Schenck, motion picture producer, in one of the friendliest marital break-ups in film annals. Schenck inferred he was making way for Jessel and wished his ex-wife and the comedian all happiness.

Miss Talmadge, however, would not discuss either her business affairs or her reported romance with Jessel.

Schools Closed At Zion City By Voliva's Orders

Famous Zionist Makes Good
Threat Made Prior To
Recent Election

(International News Service)
ZION CITY, Ill., April 17.—Wilbur Glen Voliva's schools where they teach pupils that the world is flat as a pancake and not round like an apple, were closed today.

The closing order came after Voliva threatened to "crack down" on Zion unless his school board candidates were re-elected. In all, 1,300 pupils were told to take their books home and stay there for the rest of the school year.

In last Saturday's contests the voters defeated Sylvester De Pew, president of the board and two of Voliva's board members.

Voliva took a leading part in the campaign for De Pew's re-election and before election said that in the event of De Pew's defeat he would "crack the town wide open."

The notice of the school shutdown said:

Hunt Blackmailers In Man's Death At Indianapolis, Ind.

(International News Service)
INDIANAPOLIS, April 17.—The probe of the mysterious murder here April 6 of Bert Callahan, 47-year-old wealthy bachelor, took a sensational turn today when Chief of Police Michael F. Morrissey ordered the roundup of gang of blackmailers here whose members were alleged to have been operating in women's clothes to deceive their victims.

The chief's order was immediately linked with the report several days ago that a neighbor of Callahan had seen a man dressed as a woman loitering in the rear of the Callahan home several hours before he was slain.

Boys Jam Y For Newsies' Rally

Crowd Of 250 Carriers On Hand For Special Two-
Hour Frolic

RENTZ JOINS THEM AS THEY CELEBRATE

If any seismograph recorded slight earth tremors last night you can blame over 250 New Castle News newsboys—home carriers and street salesboys—who forgot their school and delivery cares while they frolicked merrily at the Y. M. C. A. in the first "all Newsies" fun carnival sponsored by The News.

From Fred L. Rentz, president and managing editor of the newspaper, down to the boy who covers the shortest route—and, by the way, hardly a carrier was missing—there were face smiles that spread from ear to ear and sparkling eyes that radiated supreme content.

And there were reasons—many reasons—why the crowded second-floor banquet hall echoed merriment for two hours or more there wasn't a dull moment because Ralph S. Reed supervisor of the Fred L. Rentz Newsboys club, the newsies own organization, had seen to that. Reed was aided by others.

"Leap Frog," "School Days" and "My Wild Irish Rose" were never sung more vigorously by any group than it was by the husky-voiced "paper" boys under W. O. "Red" Williams' direction. Williams, his face all smiles, never found more pleasure in leading an audience of singers. Williams sang a solo for them. Bob Morgan was accompanist.

The singing began things—then came a competent magic performer Donald Hoffmaster assisted by Miss Faye Stump; comic impersonations by James Smith; a whirligig of comic cartooning ably done by John P. Davis; Algonquin school man; an entertaining period of motion pictures reels on "Flex the Cat" and others of Slim Summerville and then—we couldn't forget it—the eats.

In between the chalk talk of Mr. Davis and the motion pictures the boy's commander, Mr. Rentz was presented. He had come with Mrs. Rentz to enjoy the evening—and enjoy it they did.

"It's the first time," The News head told the group, "that I've seen you all together—you make an impressive appearance." He told them the main duties of a good carrier, recalling that "every customer appreciates the service of a good newsboy."

Mr. Rentz said that when he went to work with The News 52 years ago there were only a dozen newsboys serving. He told, briefly, the changes since then, changes in the carriers and in newspaper production.

Last of all, it was explained to the group that "many a prominent man today" once carried The News and Mr. Rentz asserted that "they're proud of it." In closing, he wished the gang luck.

Edward J. Ryan, circulation head of the paper, told the group that J. P. Rentz, general manager, wanted it made known that only an important trip south prevented him from joining them. Through Ryan he sent his best wishes.

Newsboys—and one girl—came from the city, Edinburg, East Brook, the Harbor, West Washington St. extension, Harlansburg, Seventh Ward, Marquis Stop and other points for the rally. The girl—one of about 11 who serve the paper—was 13 year old Ruth Martin, Florence avenue, who delivers nine papers every night. Ruth sat up front on a reserved chair.

After the program the boys lined up and were served pop and wieners by assistants of The News circulation department and Y men. The eats closed the rally.

Present during the evening were a number of men from The News.

(International News Service)
ZION CITY, Ill., April 17.—Willbur Glen Voliva's schools where they teach pupils that the world is flat as a pancake and not round like an apple, were closed today.

The closing order came after Voliva threatened to "crack down" on Zion unless his school board candidates were re-elected. In all, 1,300 pupils were told to take their books home and stay there for the rest of the school year.

Schools Closed
In last Saturday's contests the voters defeated Sylvester De Pew, president of the board and two of Voliva's board members.

Voliva took a leading part in the campaign for De Pew's re-election and before election said that in the event of De Pew's defeat he would "crack the town wide open."

The notice of the school shutdown said:

"Because of a shortage of funds the city of Zion cannot afford to support the schools further this year."

Hunt Blackmailers In Man's Death At Indianapolis, Ind.

(International News Service)
INDIANAPOLIS, April 17.—The probe of the mysterious murder here April 6 of Bert Callahan, 47-year-old wealthy bachelor, took a sensational turn today when Chief of Police Michael F. Morrissey ordered the roundup of a gang of blackmailers here whose members were alleged to have been wearing women's clothes to deceive their victims.

The chief's order was immediately linked with the report several days ago that a neighbor of Callahan had seen a man dressed as a woman loitering in the rear of the Callahan home several hours before he was slain.

Boys Jam Y For Newsies' Rally

Crowd Of 250 Carriers On Hand For Special Two-
Hour Frolic

RENTZ JOINS THEM
AS THEY CELEBRATE

If any seismograph recorded slight earth tremors last night you can blame over 250 New Castle Newsboys—home carriers and street salesboys—who forgot their school and delivery cares while they frolicked merrily at the Y. M. C. A. in the first "all Newsies" fun carnival sponsored by The News.

From Fred L. Rentz, president and managing editor of the newspaper, down to the boy who covers the shortest route—and, by the way, hardly a carrier was missing—there were faces smiling that spread from ear to ear and sparkling eyes that radiated supreme content.

And there were reasons—many reasons—why the crowded second-floor banquet hall echoed merriment—for two hours or more there wasn't a dull moment because Ralph S. Reed supervisor of the Fred L. Reed Newsboys, never found more pleasure in leading an audience of singers. Williams sang a solo for them. Bob Morgan was accompanist.

The singing began things—then came a competent magic performer Donald Hoffmaster assisted by Miss Faye Stump, comic impersonations by Ted Smith; a whirling of comic cartooning ably done by John P. Davis, Alquippa school man; an entertaining period of motion pictures reels on "Flex the Cat" and others of Slim Summerville and then—we couldn't forget it—the cats.

Between the chalk talk of Mr. Davis and the motion pictures the boys' commander, Mr. Rentz was presented. He had come with Mrs. Rentz to enjoy the evening—and enjoy it they did.

"It's the first time," The News head told the group, "that I've seen you all together—you make an impressive appearance." He told them the main duties of a good carrier, recalling that "every customer appreciates the service of a good newsboy."

Mr. Rentz said that when he went to work with The News 52 years ago there were only a dozen newsboys serving. He told briefly the changes since then, changes in the carriers and in newspaper production.

Last of all, it was explained to the group that "many a prominent man today" once carried The News and Mr. Rentz asserted that "they're proud of it." In closing, he wished the gang luck.

Edward J. Ryan, circulation head of the paper, told the group that J. F. Rentz, general manager, wanted it made known that only an important trip south prevented him from joining them. Through Ryan he sent his best wishes.

Newsboys—and one girl—came from the city, Edinburg, East Brook, the Harbor, West Washington St. extension, Mariansburg, Seventh Ward, Marquis Stop and other points for the rally. The girl—one of about 11 who serve the paper—was 13-year old Ruth Martin, Florence avenue, who delivers nine papers every night. Ruth sat up front on a reserved chair.

After the program the boys lined up and were served pop and wieners by assistants of The News circulation department and Y men. The eats closed the rally.

Present during the evening were a number of men from The News.

NEW YORK, April 17.—"The fourth internationale" devoted to world revolution which Leon Trotzky told French police he was organizing when they raided his villa near Paris Sunday is already being mobilized in America. It was revealed today.

The organization is a left wing group compared with the regular Communists, that is they are more radical than those heretofore considered the extreme radicals in America. They are working for immediate world revolution.

Arne Swabeck, secretary of the organization, explained today that the difference between the Fourth Internationale now being organized

Harmonica Contest For School Pupils Attracts Interest

New Castle's first grade school harmonica contest which will be held on Friday night in the Lincoln-Garfield auditorium is arousing considerable interest among the school children.

Especially is this true in the South Side schools. Terrace, Lincoln-Garfield and Pollock schools all boast of many fine players who are practicing with intention of representing their school. The girls of the Lincoln-Garfield where J. M. Hughes is principal, are just as eager as the boys and quite a few of them are entering the contest. Girls will compete only against girls and separate prizes will be awarded boys and girls.

Both preliminary and the final contests are open to the general public free. This is made possible through the free use of the auditorium given by the school and Dr. C. C. Green.

Boys and girls who expect to enter the contest should read the rules and fill out an entry blank. This entry blank should be presented on the stage of the Lincoln-Garfield on Friday night at seven-thirty P. M. so that arrangements can be completed for the beginning of the contest at eight.

Rules of Contest

1. Any boy or girl attending a local grade school may enter the contest.
2. Each contestant will play only one tune of his or her own selection.
3. Contestants may use any harmonica in the key of C.
4. The contest will be judged on four points: selection of song, accuracy, rhythm and expression.

5. Each contestant must fill out an entry blank and present it at seventh-thirty on the stage of the Lincoln and Garfield auditorium, Friday, April 20.

For further information read the New Castle News daily this week.

Big League Teams Will Open Season In Eight Cities

Start Of 1934 Season Today Finds Giants, Cubs And Pirates Favored

Senators, Yankees And Indians Look Like Best Bets In American League

NEW YORK, April 17.—This is the old come-on day of major league baseball, the day when drama uses a callopie and illusion has its fling. In eight big league cities, while hands play and fans cheer and governors, mayors and first citizens lead a hand and pretend a little themselves. The funny thing about this is that tomorrow they'll just be sixteen ball clubs, engaged in playing a normal and formal ball season of 154 lengthy games.

Play Ball
But today they'll have the glitter and glamor that only a lack of familiarity can endow. The season can only open once and, after all, the small boy that is in all of us is entitled to at least that much.

So today more than 200,000 will crowd the eight big league parks to revel in the show and a million more will read of it in type or hear it on the air—provided the weather permits. It didn't in Washington yesterday, with the result that a sort of tentative or semi-final opening in the nation's capital had to be abandoned to the regret of 25,000 anticipated guests, including the president, who had nominally agreed to his interest, his presence and his right arm to the occasion.

Threatening Weather
Threatening weather continued throughout the east this morning, menacing the openings in New York, Brooklyn, Boston and Philadelphia. However, the forecast held out hope for all four and, in the west, it was strictly optimistic; so that, for once, it seemed possible that much, if not all, of the first-day program might be fulfilled. The world's champion Giants, the Pirates, the Cardinals and the Cubs are the favored teams in the National league, although a few of them seem to be losing in favor. This seems to apply conspicuously to the Giants who, so far, haven't hit the new ball, or been able to pitch with it.

Cuyler, Collins Out
The Cubs also will be starting without Hazen Cuyler, who has an infected finger, and the understanding is that Collins may not be available at first base for the Cardinals. In the American league, the champion Senators and the ex-champion Yankees are generally esteemed, the latter because G. H. Ruth, the well known human being, seems to be in the midst of an up-rearing. Still, at this premature moment, nobody really knows anything about anything. Maybe that's what makes the day so attractive.

MIDGETS TO MEET
The midget midget league managers and officials will hold a meeting at the home of Victor Augustine, 812 East High street tonight at 7:30 o'clock. All managers who intend to put teams in the midget league this year are asked to be present.

MEETING CALLED FOR TONIGHT

There are eleven teams holding franchises in the newly created independent baseball league at the present time according to a statement by Kenneth Lutz, acting president. New Pirate 2nd Baseman Called Brilliant By Scribes

By Central Press
PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 17.—At the time the Pittsburgh Pirates traded Tony Piet to Cincinnati with only a 19-year-old rookie in sight to play second base for them, the move seemed very much like an unwise one.

But Harry Lavagetto, the rookie, has proved during the spring training season that the Pirates knew what they were about and that it was no gamble at all to place him at Piet's old position.

A number of veteran baseball writers, after having viewed Lavagetto only in training camp action this spring have come out with the unqualified statement that the youngster is unquestionably one of the great infield finds of the decade.

This led to a trial at second base where he remained the rest of the season, finishing with 153 hits out of 509 times at bat for a .312 average. He batted in 100, scored 33 runs, and stole 18 bases.

The former coast-leaguer played second base in nearly all of Pittsburgh's exhibition games, taking the job away from Tommy Thelenow, whom the experts had figured as a probable successor to Piet.

"Cookie," as Lavagetto was known in high school baseball a little more than a year ago, didn't break into the Oakland lineup until a month after the 1933 season opened, but when he was given a chance as a pinch-hitter he delivered a timely blow and on five other occasions came through with a hit in the "clutches."

Though he had offers from the Pirates, Detroit and the St. Louis Browns last year, he preferred playing with his home town, but the Bucs had their western scout watch him all season and finally landed him for a much higher price than they would have had to pay had he been offered a bonus for signing a Pirate contract prior to joining the Bucs.

Big League Teams Will Open Season In Eight Cities

Start Of 1934 Season Today Finds Giants, Cubs And Pirates Favored

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, April 17.—This is the old come-on day of major league baseball, the day when drama uses a callopie and illusion has its fling. In eight big league cities, while bands play and fans cheer and governors, mayors and first citizens lend a hand and pretend a little themselves. The funny thing about this is that tomorrow they'll just be sixteen ball clubs engaged in playing a normal and formal ball season of 154 lengthy games.

Play Ball

But today they'll have the glitter and glamor that only a lack of familiarity can endow. The season can only open once and, after all, the small boy that is in all of us is entitled to at least that much. So today more than 200,000 will crowd the eight big league parks to revel in the show and a million more will read of it in type or hear it on the air—provided the weather repents. It didn't in Washington yesterday, with the result that a sort of tentative or semi-final opening in the nation's capital had to be abandoned to the regret of 25,000 anticipated guests, including the president, who had nominally agreed to his interest, his presence and his right arm to the occasion.

Threatening Weather

Threatening weather continued throughout the east this morning, menacing the openings in New York, Brooklyn, Boston and Philadelphia. However, the forecast held out hope for all four and, in the west, it was strictly optimistic, so that, for once, it seemed possible that much, if not all, of the first-day program might be fulfilled.

The world's champion Giants, the Pirates, the Cardinals and the Cubs are the favored teams in the National league, although a few of them seem to be losing in favor. This seems to apply conspicuously to the Giants who, so far, haven't hit the new ball, or been able to pitch with it.

Cuyler, Collins Out

The Cubs also will be starting without Hazen Cuyler, who has an infected finger, and the understanding is that Collins may not be available at first base for the Cardinals. In the American league, the champion Senators and the ex-champion Yankees are generally esteemed, the latter because G. H. Ruth, the well known human being, seems to be in the midst of an up-rising.

Still, at this premature moment, nobody really knows anything about anything. Maybe that's what makes the day so attractive.

MIDGETS TO MEET

The Midget mushball league managers and officials will hold a meeting at the home of Victor Augustine, 812 East High street tonight at 7:30 o'clock. All managers who intend to put teams in the midget league this year are asked to be present.

GRID CLINIC—Purdue footballers demonstrate defensive line play for 300 high school coaches at grid clinic.

New Pirate 2nd Baseman Called Brilliant By Scribes

By Central Press
PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 17.—At the time the Pittsburgh Pirates traded Tony Piet to Cincinnati with only a 19-year-old rookie in sight to play second base for them, the move seemed very much like an unwise one.

But Harry Lavagetto, the rookie, has proved during the spring training season that the Pirates knew what they were about and that it was no gamble at all to place him at Piet's old position.

A number of veteran baseball writers, after having viewed Lavagetto only in training camp action this spring have come out with the unqualified statement that the youngster is unquestionably one of the great infield finds of the decade!

Lavagetto's success is all the more remarkable because he has only one season of professional baseball experience behind him. Not many players with such brief experience are able to make good in their first major league assignment.

Lavagetto comes from Oakland of the Pacific Coast league. Though he had offers from the Pirates, Detroit and the St. Louis Browns last year, he preferred playing with his home town, but the Bucs had their western scout watch him all season and finally landed him for a much higher price than they would have had to pay had he been offered a bonus for signing a Pirate contract prior to joining the Oaks.

"Cookie", as Lavagetto was known in high school baseball a little more than a year ago, didn't break into the Oakland lineup until a month after the 1933 season opened, but when he was given a chance as a pinch-hitter he delivered a timely blow and on five other occasions came through with a hit in the "clutches."

This led to a trial at second base where he remained the rest of the season, finishing with 159 hits out of 509 times at bat for a .312 average. He batted in 100, scored 33 runs, and stole 18 bases.

The former coast-leaguer played second base in nearly all of Pittsburgh's exhibition games, taking the job away from Tommy Thevenow, whom the experts had figured as a probable successor to Piet.

Big League Teams Will Open Season In Eight Cities

Start Of 1934 Season Today Finds Giants, Cubs And Pirates Favored

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, April 17.—This is the old come-on day of major league baseball, the day when drama uses a calloph and illusion has its fling. In eight big league cities, while bands play and fans cheer and governors, mayors and first citizens lend a hand and pretend a little themselves. The funny thing about this is that tomorrow they'll just be sixteen ball clubs engaged in playing a normal and formal ball season of 154 lengthy games.

Play Ball
But today they'll have the glitter and glamor that only a lack of familiarity can endow. The season can only open once and after all, the small boy that is in all of us is entitled to at least that much. So today more than 200,000 will crowd the eight big league parks to revel in the show and a million more will read of it in type or hear it on the air—provided the weather repents. It didn't in Washington yesterday, with the result that a sort of tentative or semi-final opening in the nation's capital had to be abandoned to the regret of 25,000 anticipated guests, including the president, who had nominally agreed to his interest, his presence and his right arm to the occasion.

Threatening Weather
Threatening weather continued throughout the east this morning, menacing the openings in New York, Brooklyn, Boston and Philadelphia. However, the forecast held out hope for all four and, in the west, it was strictly optimistic; so that, for once, it seemed possible that much, if not all, of the first-day program might be fulfilled. The world's champion Giants, the Pirates, the Cardinals and the Cubs are the favored teams in the National league, although a few of them seem to be losing in favor. This seems to apply conspicuously to the Giants who, so far, haven't hit the new ball, or been able to pitch with it.

Cuyler, Collins Out
The Cubs also will be starting without Hazen Cuyler, who has an infected finger, and the understanding is that Collins may not be available at first base for the Cardinals. In the American league, the champion Senators and the ex-champion Yankees are generally esteemed, the latter because G. H. Ruth, the well known human being, seems to be in the midst of an up-rising. Still, at this premature moment, nobody really knows anything about anything. Maybe that's what makes the day so attractive.

MIDGETS TO MEET
The Midget baseball league managers and officials will hold a meeting at the home of Victor Augustine, 812 East High street tonight at 7:30 o'clock. All managers who intend to put teams in the midget league this year are asked to be present.

New Pirate 2nd Baseman Called Brilliant By Scribes

By Central Press
PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 17.—

At the time the Pittsburgh Pirates traded Tony Piet to Cincinnati with only a 19-year-old rookie in sight to play second base for them, the move seemed very much like an unwise one.

But Harry Lavagetto, the rookie, has proved during the spring training season that the Pirates knew what they were about and that it was no gamble at all to place him at Piet's old position.

A number of veteran baseball writers, after having viewed Lavagetto only in training camp action this spring have come out with the unqualified statement that the youngster is unquestionably one of the great infield finds of the decade.

He can't miss, they say.

Lavagetto's success is all the more remarkable because he has only one season of professional baseball experience behind him. Not many players with such brief experience are able to make good in their first major league assignment.

Lavagetto came from Oakland of the Pacific Coast league.

Though he had offers from the Pirates, Detroit and the St. Louis Browns last year, he preferred playing with his home town, but the Bucs had their western scout watch him all season and finally landed him for a much higher price than they would have had to pay had he been offered a bonus for signing a Pirate contract prior to joining the Oaks.

"Cookie," as Lavagetto was known in high school baseball a little more than a year ago, didn't break into the Oakland lineup until a month after the 1933 season opened, but when he was given a chance as a pinch-hitter he delivered a timely blow and on five other occasions came through with a hit in the "clutches."

This led to a trial at second base where he remained the rest of the season, finishing with 159 hits out of 509 times at bat for a .312 average. He batted in 100, scored 83 runs, and stole 18 bases.

been said on good authority that "Air Conditioning" would become an important industry, the radio or automobile. He proceeded to very interestingly describe what has to be done to air in order to make it suitable for breathing throughout the different seasons of the year, and introduced the six villains, heat, cold, stagnant air, dirt, odor, and humidity. It is the control of these six which he said that constitutes "Air Conditioning." Following his talk there were a good many questions from the Engineers as to some of the details upon which he had not touched.

At the dinner which preceded the evening meeting, Charles E. Mayne of New Castle, gave a very interesting and instructive description of his experiences in Alaska during the gold rush of the 90's. "1. To regulate or prohibit all means, devices, or methods which are apt to cause manipulation of such transactions, or which are likely to lead to excessive speculation.

"2. To provide for regulation and control of such transactions and of practices and matters related thereto, including transactions by officers, directors and principal security holders.

Although Washington Viewed Wirt Episode As Total "Flop" Educator Has His Followers

By CHARLES P. STEWART Central Press Staff Writer — WASHINGTON, Apr. 17.—Ambassador Alexander Troyanovsky held his initial reception at Russia diplomatic headquarters in Washington on the evening of the same recent day that Dr. William I. Wirt, the Gary (Ind.) educator, appeared as a witness, to warn a congressional committee of the dangerous foothold he says Communism has succeeded in establishing in the United States government.

Thoughtful, I couldn't attend the ambassadorial blow-out not having the necessary clothes to wear to so elegant a function.

All accounts agree, however, that it was the most magnificently plutocratic affair in the capital's history. The furnishings simply are a marvel to all connoisseurs, both as to cost and beauty. The refreshments served are described as having been of a sort to give cards and spades to Lucullus and beat him easily.

The guests, numbering more than 1,000, included the elite of the entire country, socially and politically.

No wonder Ambassador William Bullitt considers a $1,000,000 American embassy a necessity in Moscow to reciprocate such hospitality.

As a matter of fact, the Russian embassy here is worth several times $1,000,000. More over, it is lucky for Bullitt that he's a rich man, if he proposes to compete with Ambassador Troyanovsky in the opulence of his entertainments. His official salary for a year, competent judges assure me, wouldn't pay for just one of the proportions of the Soviet representative's introductory celebration.

The Communists are too expensively folk to associate with wasn't the argument advanced by Dr. Wirt, however.

The doctor's story is regarded in Washington as having flared brightly. I'm not so confident of that.

ed himself with any particular expressions of racial bigotry.

Nevertheless, the doctor's views are allied with those of the extreme nationalists who reason that none but those whose origin conforms with their own are to be trusted, politically or otherwise.

It would be nice to think that Wirt is pooh-poohed on the ground that different folk may have different philosophies and yet mean well in their respective ways. But I don't see a matter of fact, believe it, I'm convinced that the "doc" has many followers, in considering all who disagree with him traitors. And I'm convinced that those who disagree with him practically are a unit in considering the school superintendent a hopeless, humorless old moseback, not worth taking seriously.

I may heartily dissent from them or, worse.

State Rests In Labelle Case At Youngstown, Ohio

Former Sanitary District Director Is On Trial For Embezzlement

(International News Service)
YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 17.—That one of the "questionable" vouchers of the Mahoning Valley Sanitary District was issued for a fake report was intimated in concluding testimony introduced shortly before the state rested its case against Fred A. Labelle, former director of the district, in his second trial for embezzlement, it was revealed today.
Prof. J. H. Gourley of the Ohio State University, testified that his secretary omitted the phrase "lime requirements" in transcribing his report of a soil analysis for the district.
The state contended the same phrase was omitted in the soil report purportedly submitted by "George K. Mittleman" and that Mittleman's signature is on a voucher Labelle allegedly forged.

Engineers Hear Pittsburgh Man

Air-Conditioning Is Discussed At Meeting At The Castleton Hotel

The Mahoning-Shenango Valley Engineers' Society heard H. W. Redding of Pittsburgh, discuss the fundamentals of "Air Conditioning," at the Castleton hotel Monday night.
He told the Engineers that "Air Conditioning" was not only desirable from the health and comfort standpoint, but that in many cases the installation of such equipment is good business. Mr. Redding pointed out that while he personally did not care to indulge in predictions, it has been said on good authority that "Air Conditioning" would become as important an industry as the radio or automobile. He proceeded to very interestingly describe what has to be done to air in order to make it suitable for breathing throughout the different seasons of the year, and introduced the six villains, heat, cold, stagnant air, dirt, odor, and humidity. It is the control of these six villains, he said, that constitutes "Air Conditioning." Following his talk there were a good many questions from the Engineers as to some of the details upon which he had not touched.

At the dinner which preceded the evening meeting, Charles B. Mayne of New Castle, gave a very interesting and instructive description of his experiences in Alaska during the gold rush of the 90's. He outlined the natural resources of the region, showing that the fishing industry alone does an annual business in Alaska in excess of the cost of Seward's purchase, in addition to the well known mineral resources and tremendous acreages of pulp wood forests which have never been touched.

About sixty-five men attended the meeting.
E. L. Davenport, chairman of the program committee, announced that the subject for the next meeting which will be May 21st, will be "Mechanical Drives in Industry."

Stock Market Bill Is Ready

Revised Draft Of Measure To Be Presented To Senate This Week

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Apr. 17.—The final revised draft of the stock market bill was ready today for the senate banking committee. It will report it to the senate later this week.
Efforts to eliminate section two failed in the subcommittee. The section, regarded as important to the constitutionality of the measure, is headed: "Necessity for regulations," and reads:
"Transactions in securities as commonly conducted upon securities exchanges and over-the-counter markets are carried on in large volume by the public generally and originate in large part outside the states in which the exchanges and over-the-counter markets are located and are effected by means of the mails and instrumentalities of interstate commerce, constitute an important part of the current of interstate commerce, and are affected with a national public interest, which makes it imperative:
"1. To regulate or prohibit all means, devices, or methods which are apt to cause manipulation of such transactions, or which are likely to lead to excessive speculation.
"2. To provide for regulation and control of such transactions and of practices and matters related thereto, including transactions by officers, directors and principal security holders.
"3. To require appropriate reports in connection with such transactions.
"4. To impose requirements necessary to make such regulation and control reasonably complete and effective, in order to insure the maintenance of fair and honest markets in such transactions."

"The state contended the same phrase was omitted in the soil report purportedly submitted by "George K. Mittleman" and that Mittleman's signature is on a voucher Labelle allegedly forged."

Although Washington Viewed Wirt Episode As Total "Flop" Educator Has His Followers

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON, Apr. 17.—Ambassador Alexander Troyanovsky held his initial reception at Russia diplomatic headquarters in Washington on the evening of the same recent day that Dr. William I. Wirt, the Gary (Ind.) educator, appeared as a witness, to warn a congressional committee of the dangerous foothold he says Communism has succeeded in establishing in the United States government.

Thought invited, I couldn't attend the ambassadorial blow-out, not having the necessary clothes to wear to so elegant a function.
All accounts agree, however, that it was the most magnificently plutocratic affair in the capital's history. For one item, the embassy is the most gorgeously housed in the city. The furnishings simply are a marvel to all connoisseurs, both as to cost and beauty. The refreshments served are described as having been of a sort to give cards and spades to Lucullus and beat him easily. The guests, numbering more than 1,000, included the elite of the entire country, socially and politically.

No wonder Ambassador William Bullitt considers a $1,000,000 American embassy a necessity in Moscow to reciprocate such hospitality.
As a matter of fact, the Russian embassy here is worth several times $1,000,000. Moreover, it is lucky for Bullitt that he's a rich man, if he proposes to compete with Ambassa-ed himself with any particular expressions of racial bigotry. Nevertheless, the doctor's views are allied with those of the extreme nationalists who reason that none but those whose origin conforms with their own are to be trusted, politically or otherwise.

It would be nice to think that Wirt is pooh-poohed on the ground that different folk may have different philosophies and yet mean well in their respective ways. But I don't as a matter of fact, believe it. I'm convinced that the "doc" has many followers, in considering all who disagree with him traitors. And I'm convinced that those who disagree with him practically are a unit in considering the school superintendent a hopeless, humorless old mossback, not worth taking seriously.
Personally, as to the "doc," I'm entirely in accord with these latter.
I may heartily dissent from them at times.

Pittsburgh Pastor Is Against Merger

Dr. MacCartney, Presbyterian Leader, Lauds U. P.'s In Sermon

Dr. Clarence E. MacCartney, pastor of Pittsburgh's First Presbyterian church, voiced his disapproval of the proposed merger of the Presbyterian and United Presbyterian churches in a sermon in his church on Sunday. It has been learned here. The union is to be considered in May.

Dr. MacCartney, reports, said, maintained that the United Presbyterian church was much more united in its theology and tradition than the Presbyterian denomination and that these values would be lost in the merger.

He referred to dissension in the Presbyterian ranks in 1923, 1924 and 1929, adding that there has been no such dissension in the United Presbyterian church. He said that the groups of dissenters in the Presbyterian controversy outnumber the total ministry of the smaller communion.

"If the United Presbyterians join in the merger, they should do so with full knowledge of what is going on in the Presbyterian church," he said.

State Rests In Labelle Case At Youngstown, Ohio

(International News Service)
YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 17.—That one of the "questionable" vouchers of the Mahoning Valley Sanitary District was issued for a faked report was intimated in concluding testimony introduced shortly before the state rested its case against Fred A. Labelle, former director of the district, in his second trial for embezzlement, it was revealed today.
Prof. J. H. Gourley of the Ohio State University, testified that his secretary omitted the phrase "time requirement" in transcribing his report of a soil analysis for the district.
The state contended the same phrase was omitted in the soil report purportedly submitted by "George K. Mittleman" and that Mittleman's signature is on a voucher Labelle allegedly forged.

Engineers Hear Pittsburgh Man

Air-Conditioning Is Discussed At Meeting At The Castleton Hotel

The Mahoning-Shenango Valley Engineers' Society heard H. W. Redding of Pittsburgh, discuss the fundamentals of "Air Conditioning" at the Castleton Hotel Monday night. He told the engineers that "Air Conditioning" was not only desirable from the health and comfort standpoint, but that in many cases the installation of such equipment is good business. Mr. Redding pointed out that while he personally did not care to indulge in predictions, it has been said on good authority that "Air Conditioning" would become as important an industry as the radio or automobile. He proceeded to very interestingly describe what has to be done to air in order to make it suitable for breathing throughout the different seasons of the year, and introduced the six villains, heat, cold, stagnant air, dirt, odor, and humidity. It is the control of these six villains, he said, that constitutes "Air Conditioning." Following his talk there were a number of questions from the Engineers as to some of the details upon which he had not touched.

THEY SEE IT NOW

"If my Foresight had been as good as my Hindsight, I'd be better off a Blamed Sight."

So argues many a man who looks back over the last five or ten years and contemplates how much wiser he would have been if he had invested in life insurance instead of venturing into various other fields of finance.

At the dinner which preceded the evening meeting, Charles B. Mayne of New Castle, gave a very interesting and instructive description of his experiences in Alaska during the gold rush of the 1920s. He outlined the natural resources of the region, showing that the fishing industry alone does an annual business in Alaska in excess of the cost of Seward's purchase, in addition to the well known mineral resources and tremendous acreages of pulp wood forests which have never been touched.

About sixty-five men attended the meeting.
E. L. Davenport, chairman of the program committee, announced that the subject for the next meeting which will be May 21st, will be "Mechanical Drives in Industry."

Revised Draft Of Measure To Be Presented To Senate This Week

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Apr. 17.—The final revised draft of the stock market bill was ready today for the senate banking committee. It will report it to the senate later this week.

Efforts to eliminate section two failed in the subcommittee. The section, regarded as important to the constitutionality of the measure, is headed: "Necessity for regulations," and reads:
"Transactions in securities as commonly conducted upon securities exchanges and over-the-counter markets are carried on in large volume by the public generally and originate in large part outside the states in which the exchanges and over-the-counter markets are located and are effected by means of the mails and instrumentalities of interstate commerce, constitute an important part of the current of interstate commerce, and are affected with a national public interest, which makes it imperative:
"1. To regulate or prohibit all means, devices, or methods which are apt to cause manipulation of such transactions, or which are likely to lead to excessive speculation.
"2. To provide for regulation and control of such transactions and of practices and matters related thereto, including transactions by officers, directors and principal security holders.
"3. To require appropriate reports in connection with such transactions.
"4. To impose requirements necessary to make such regulation and control reasonably complete and effective, in order to insure the maintenance of fair and honest markets in such transactions."

Although Washington Viewed Wirt Episode As Total "Flop" Educator Has His Followers

By CHARLES P. STEWART Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Apr. 17.—Ambassador Alexander Troyanovsky held his initial reception at Russia's diplomatic headquarters in Washington on the evening of the same recent day that Dr. William I. Wirt, the Gary (Ind.) educator, appeared as a witness, to warn a congressional committee of the dangerous foothold he says Communism has succeeded in establishing in the United States government.

Thought invited, I couldn't attend the ambassadorial blow-out, not having the necessary clothes to wear to so elegant a function.

All accounts agree, however, that it was the most magnificently plutocratic affair in the capital's history. For one item the embassy is the most gorgeously housed in the city. The furnishings simply are a marvel to all connoisseurs, both as to cost and beauty. The refreshments served are described as having been of a sort to give cards and spades to Lucullus and beat him easily.

The guests, numbering more than 1,000, included the elite of the entire country, socially and politically.

No wonder Ambassador William Bullitt considers a $1,000,000 American embassy a necessity in Moscow to reciprocate such hospitality.

As a matter of fact, the Russian embassy here is worth several times $1,000,000. Moreover, it is lucky for Bullitt that he's a rich man, if he proposes to compete with Ambassador Troyanovsky in the opulence of his entertainments. His official salary for a year, competent judges assure me, wouldn't pay for just one of the proportions of the Soviet representative's introductory celebration.

The Communists are too expensive folk to associate with wasn't the argument advanced by Dr. Wirt, however.

The doctor's story is regarded in Washington as having fizzled. I'm not so confident of that.

There seems to me to be considerable evidence of a determination on the part of quite a formidable element of Americans to believe such stuff as the Hoosier school teacher broadcasts, regardless of the cold water thrown on it.

There is no mistaking a decided growth in race prejudice, anyway.

It's astonishing how seed of this kind blows around, settles here and there, and germinates.

Who'd have imagined, when Hitlerism established itself in the Fatherland, that its racial phobias could become more than a local manifestation. Yet it was mighty soon afterward that they began to show signs of increasing vitality on this side of the Atlantic. They had existed here already, to be sure, but there is no denying that their resurgence in the Nazi realm stimulated them.

Dr. Wirt, it's true, hasn't associated himself with any particular expressions of racial bigotry.

Nevertheless, the doctor's views are allied with those of the extreme nationalists who reason that none but those whose origin conforms with their own are to be trusted, politically or otherwise.

It would be nice to think that Wirt is pooh-poohed on the ground that different folk may have different philosophies and yet mean well in their respective ways. But I don't see a matter of fact, believe it, I'm convinced that the "doc" has many followers, in considering all who disagree with him traitors. And I'm convinced that those who disagree with him practically are a unit in considering the school superintendent a hopeless, humorless old mossback, not worth taking seriously.

I may heartily dissent from them or, worse.
